Dedication

TO ANNE E. McKECHNIE, Dean of Girls, in sincere appreciation of her sympathetic understanding, her enthusiastic leadership, and her untiring devotion to the high ideals of Deering, this book is respectfully dedicated.

OUR DEERING

The History of Deering High

AFTER having our taste in architecture enhanced by the beauty and grandeur of the building, which is our present-day Deering High School, we could hardly imagine ourselves going to the one-room wooden structure which was the first Deering High School in 1874. However, these accommodations, poor as they seem to us, were the result of long town meetings and endless arguments. This place, Morgan's Hall at Morrill's Corner, undoubtedly seemed a veritable palace of learning to the thirty boys and girls who began their high school education under the able leadership of Mr. W. H. Palmer. The school hours were divided for some time into two sessions, morning and afternoon. With the exception of Latin and Algebra, the course of study was much the same as it is in the higher grammar grades today and, in order to graduate, the pupils were required to take all the subjects offered. Evidently the work seemed too hard or the hours too long, for the first graduating class consisted of only five members. Only one member of this class, Mrs. Phinney, is now living.

Mr. Palmer continued as principal for four years, during which time the school was moved to the Heseltine Grammar School. Here, needless to say, the building was soon filled to its capacity, for it served as both grammar school and high school. So it became evident that a new building was needed and the result was in 1878, the present Longfellow school.

Here the Deeringites were under Mr. F. E. C. Robbins, principal, and Miss Fox, assistant. At first, this building was much too large and only the ground floor was used. However, in 1897, during Mr. E. H. Crosby's leadership, we see that, as Deering was still out-growing its various homes, they felt a need for a bigger and better school; this need was realized in the building which is now Lincoln Junior High School. To many, it seemed a ridiculous plan for wasting money to erect a building with a large assembly hall, a fine library, and fourteen recitation rooms.

In 1898, just before the building was ready to be occupied, Mr. Crosby was killed by an accident and his term was finished by Mr. Swan and Mr. Hill. They were succeeded by Mr. Marvin under whom the building was formally dedicated on January 30, 1899, and it was at that time that Crosby Hall got its name in honor of the late principal.

Mr. Marvin remained only until 1902 when he was succeeded by Mr. John M. Nichols, who was principal for seven years. Then Mr. Herbert I. Allen, former sub-master and head of the science department, became principal. Under him, the science department grew, the commercial department was organized by Miss Julia Annis, and the annex started. However, the annex was not ready for use until 1913 at which time Mr. Louis B. Farnham became principal and remained there until 1919. He was then succeeded by our own Mr. Wing.

Mr. Wing's entrance brings us down to more familiar history. We all know of the big fire in 1920 which demolished the main building: we know of the loyal spirit which made Deering students overcome the difficulties of attending school in the Woodfords Congregational Church, the Central Square Baptist Church, the Longfellow School, and the annex. Although the building was rebuilt immediately, it no longer seemed as spacious and large as formerly and plans for our Deering were made.

This building was started in 1922 and in September, 1924, the first classes entered its doors and Lincoln Junior High School was established.

And now we are all proud of our beautiful "new Deering"; we all cherish the happy days we have spent within its doors and we, who are about to go out into the bigger school of life, will always "be loyal to the purple and loyal to the white."

"The Amethyst"

HERE is our 1931 AMETHYST! We feel that you need no introduction to it. You all know that its purpose is to make a complete record of the year's achievements: that it is to be in every way a real "year-book."

However, we do wonder if you know anything of its history. It is not very old as it was born in 1919, and that first year-book was necessarily smaller because of the smaller number of graduates. But regardless of size, the purpose was the same.

In 1924, they decided that a name was necessary; the result was THE AMETHYST. In naming the book, many suggestions were offered, but that of Mr. Linscott was finally adopted. As you probably all know, the true amethyst is a purple gem, very precious and very brilliant. Surely our AMETHYST is very precious because of its many reports, pictures, and school jokes. As for the second part of the definition, the senior class always hopes that its book may be the most complete and more perfect than any previous ones.

And now, we hope that our 1931 AMETHYST may be in all ways a true purple gem.

President's Message

OUR career at Deering will soon be only a memory — but what a glorious memory! Here, friendship, most prized of divine gifts, has been very generously bestowed upon us. As time passes on, friendship will be the bond which, since our separation as a class seems inevitable, will forever make us one in spirit.

Now, we are about to enter a new stage of our development. The training and the high ideals secured from Deering will, in a large measure, be responsible for the amount of progress we make in our future undertakings. For our very excellent preparation, therefore, we, the class of 1931, are deeply grateful to our friend and principal, Mr. Wing, and to our teachers.

However, although Deering has laid the cornerstone of success by giving us a firm foundation, we must realize that the greatness of our achievements depends on our efforts and our efforts alone.

For four years, education has been our common purpose. Slowly the twigs, our youth, have been shaped and pruned. As the years come, our future will reveal the beauty of the tree that we have grown.

" 'Tis education forms the common mind; just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

History of the Class of 1931

As a rule, Seniors do not like to admit that they were once Freshmen. However, it was an unavoidable state, and we bore it admirably. We worshipped the upperclassmen and tried to grow more like them by electing officers, giving a reception, and starting numerous boys and girls in the different fields of activity.

George Brockway and Philip Rhodes were active in organizing the Philatelic Association, which is still in existence. Margaret Perkins began her work in debating. Frances Hayden was one of the girls who started the Nature Club, a group which had been inactive for several years. Robert Estes was our athlete, being in the State Championship Cross Country Team. Our president, Bertha Crocker, won second prize in the Spear Prize Speaking Contest.

As Sophomores we exhibited our talent in football. Field hockey, a new sport for the girls of the school, was enthusiastically supported by our class. In basketball, both the girls' and the boys' teams deserve praise. Elizabeth Lincoln, Isabelle Hodgkins, and Marie Moynihan were elected to the Varsity. James Miller and Robert Estes won their letters in track. Bertha Crocker was awarded first prize in the annual Spear Prize Speaking Contest, and second prize for this district in the National Oratorical Contest.

Our Junior Class president, Philip Thorne, very successfully managed the football team. John Roberts, Richard Davis, Kenneth Jackson, and Robert Estes received letters. Harold Woodbury, John Roberts, and Lawrence Stoddard were the Juniors on the first team in basketball. The outstanding boys in track were Richard Henry, Robert Estes, Edward White, William Griffith, Daniel Rose, Niels Hamstrom, Lewis Pierce, Owen Blaisdell, and Carl Graves. Leon Carpenter was manager of the State Championship Track Teams. In field hockey, Ruth Hakins and Margaret Libby scored many goals in the class games. Lawrence Stoddard and Stuart Thoits represented our class in the tennis tournament. In baseball, Frederick Wilson, Howard Milliken, and Harold Hanson received recognition.

Margaret Perkins took the leading part in the Dramatic Club play; since there were no other Juniors in this cast, this was considered quite an honor. She was also one of the most outstanding members of the Debating Club, being in the Bates League. The other Juniors who were members of the varsity debating squad were Bertha Crocker, Donald Allton, Dorothea Smart, and Bond Perry. From this group various teams were selected to represent the school. Donald Allton won the first prize in the Spear Prize Speaking Contest, Bertha Crocker won second in this contest, and first for this district in the National Oratorical Contest.

Frances Hayden was sent to Washington to represent Deering in Junior Red Cross Work. She brought back some interesting plans which have been carried out successfully this year.

The French Department presented a play entirely in French, George Langzettel, Richard Campbell, Richard Henry, Philip Rhodes, and Philip Thorne making up the cast.

The Purple Line, our school paper, was first published during our Junior Year. Elizabeth Lincoln was the first Assistant Editor; Philip Rhodes, Marshall Barbour, and George Langzettel were in the Business Department.

Now we are Seniors. Can we ever forget our football season? Although we have to admit that Deering could not have done without the underclassmen, we are proud of our classmates, John Roberts, Marshall Barbour, Kenneth Jackson, James Miller, Robert Estes, Philip Foster, William Griffith, and Howard Milliken.

Philip Thorne and Richard Campbell are our outstanding students. In dramatics we discovered that Charlotte Cloudman and Margaret Perkins are delightful leading ladies and that Philip Rhodes and John Roberts are very talented leading men. We shall always remember Bertha Crocker and her splendid acting as Mrs. Malaprop in the Class Play.

We can hardly realize that our four years here are nearly over. We have loved dear old Deering just as every other class has, and when we are separated by our different fields of work, we shall enjoy the memories of our happy high school days.

D

ANITA JANE ALLEN

Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Here is another Deering victory over Portland. "Bullet" certainly makes a pretty bit of ammunition for any battle, and with her roguish ways she could make many an enemy her captive.

DONALD W. ALLTON

National Honor Society; Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1; Debating Team 3, 4; Spear Prize Speaking 2, 3, 4; Lyford Prize Speaking 3; "D" Club 4; Washington Club 4; Dramatic Club 4; Dramatic Club Play 4; Senior Class Play 4; AMETHYST Board.

"Don" is the chap with the cheery smile. He can eke music out of anything from a hair pin to a stringless harp!

BEATRICE BAKER

Glee Club 1, 2; Class Basketball 1.

One of Deering's sweetest and most refined seniors! Maybe you've guessed who of the many assets to the class of '31 she is. Yes, you have it. It's "Bea"!

ISABEL LOUISE BAKER

Glee Club 2; Campfire 2, 3, 4; Glee Club, Geology Club 4.

"Weezie" is one of Deering's most prominent typists. She is decidedly a fast worker! And how!

MARSHALL BARBOUR

National Honor Society; Cadets 1, 2; Orchestra 1, 2; Class President 2; Purple Line 3, 4; Executive Board 3; Football 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; President of Washington Club 4.

"Marsh" is popular, and no wonder. The combination of side burns and a sport roadster make this football hero hard to resist.

WILLIAM BARRON

Orchestra 4.

Bill has recently joined our class and taken possession of all our books. Study hard, Bill! We're all with you.

ELEANOR RUSSELL BEAL

Glee Club 1, 2, 4.

Dancing, reading, having fun;

Red is first of everyone.

The boys make fun of her red hair

But she has proved there's knowledge there.

EMERSON H. BEAL

Student Service 2; Golf 3, 4.

"Fawncy th's!" If you should hear anyone talking the high-class English brogue you can feel satisfied that "Bealie" is enjoying a chat with Count von Hanson of East Deeringshire.

D

"Major" Bennett

DONALD HUSTON BENNETT

Class Baseball 2; Football 2nd team 3; Class and varsity track 3; Cadets 1, 2, 3, 4, (Major 4.)

Math is not Don's only accomplishment, for he is the champion test tube breaker. Keep up the good work, Don, girls appreciate a man who is handy with a broom.

ELLEN WILSON BESSEY

We hear that the Scotchman's lullaby is "The Best Things in Life Are Free." Anyone desiring free transportation and service, please notify the dainty and desirable young person, Miss Bessey.

DORIS E. BICKFORD

Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Dramatic Club 4; Hockey 3; Washington Club 4.

*"She's little and quiet 'HE'
But under her poise,
She's planning for Deering
To like Portland boys!"*

ELEANOR STOVER BLACK

Washington Club 4.

Aha! What have we here! The wood nymph of our class! A tall girl with curly ebony locks,—none other than "El."

OWEN V. BLAISDELL

Cross Country 3, 4; Indoor track (Class 2) 4; Geology Club Treasurer 4.

This nice looking runner can often be seen talking with some fair daughter of Deering High.

ELEANOR SUSAN BLAKE

National Honor Society; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 4; Basketball (2nd team) 1, 2, (varsity) 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Nature Club 4; "D" Club 4.

"Blakie" has certainly shown her ability as a basketball player, and some of us know from experience that she swings a wicked hockey stick.

MADELEINE OLGA BLOM

Glee Club 1, 2.

Here's to the girl with eyes of blue
Short and slim, but through and through
To everyone she's always true.
Madeleine, good luck to you!

AUDREY HENDERSON BOND

Radio Club 1 (vice pres.); Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club; Student Service 2; Office 4.

You know, ever since the Dramatic Club play, we've wondered just how far a boy would get, telling his secret love for another girl to those sympathetic black curls of yours, Aud.

D

MILDRED B. BOUCHER

Hockey 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Prize Speaking 2.

"Bunny's" loquaciousness will no doubt aid her in guiding the footsteps of the next generation in their search for knowledge.

LYMAN BREWER

Cadets 1, 2; Class Track 3.

Here is our physics and chemistry shark! Sciences are merely soup for him. His hobby is puttering around with radios. He intends to be an electrical engineer.

EVELYN BROWN

Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Dramatic Club 3; Washington Club 3.

In all her years at Deering, Evelyn has been a well-known and well-liked student. May the future "Favor" you, "Brownie."

RACHEL KATHERINE BROWN

Debating Club 1; Glee Club 3.

A loyal supporter of Deering High football! She fills her car, and attends all the games. Her generosity has endeared her to all,—ask Tommy Quinn!

J. ORTON BUCK, JR.

Dramatic Club 4; Debating Club 4; Purple Line 4.

The poet of the Senior Class! If you haven't seen an example of his genius in the "Purple Line" you've missed something. We hope that after J. Orton has reformed the heart of Africa he won't forget Deering and his many friends here.

RUTH E. BURDETT

Basketball 1, 2; Hockey 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 4; Geology Club 4.

A brilliant smile, big brown eyes, and a personality which combine to supply our demand for a quiet young lady!

VIRGINIA M. BURNHAM

Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Tennis 3; Basketball 3; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4.

"Ginny's" going to make some dentist a nice assistant. Well, Ginny, when you get tired of pulling teeth, you can always get a job as driver of the bus for the Old Ladies' Home.

ALICE ELIZABETH BURNS

National Honor Society; Glee Club 1; Washington Club 4; Dramatic Club 4.

Presenting Miss Huston's private secretary! Alice will certainly make a good "stenog" for some business man. We hope your future will be successful, Alice, and that your fingers will remain limber.

D

ROBERT BURNS

Bobby says what he thinks. One wouldn't believe such a bashful boy would express himself so caustically.

ANNE VIRGINIA BUSTIN

Anne, we never take you too seriously, but you have been an addition to our class roll. Good luck to you in business life.

LAWRENCE ALBERT BUSTIN

"Lawrie" is a cheerful, good-natured fellow who doesn't seem to have a single care other than inventing excuses for staying out nights.

RICHARD D. CAMPBELL

National Honor Society; Radio Club 1; Purple Line 3; Executive Board 4; Treasurer of Dramatic and Washington Clubs 4; Business manager of "Not So Bad" and "The Rivals"; President of L'Atelier 4.

Einstein the second, Edison the third, and Longfellow the last. He will repair your radio, lend you his derby, or give you a ride in his Ford. He's our salutatorian.

LEON ALMUS CARPENTER

Glee Club 1; Radio Club 2; Stamp Club 3; Manager of Indoor and Outdoor Track 3; "D" Club 3, 4; "D" Club Secretary 4; Property manager of Senior Play 4.

We understand that this industrious, dependable young man plans to make nature his life work. We hope that he will be as famous as Luther Burbank.

JUNE CHAMPLIN

Class Track 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 4.

Though his hobby is an old one, so is science, and several men have made their billion at that game. Dedicate a paltry million of that billion to D. H. S. for the new clock.

EMILIE CHASE

Dramatic Club 3, 4; Nature Club 4; Student Service 4.

Emilie rides horseback like a centaur; her music would make iron tears run down the cheeks of Pluto; she always does her lessons. To summarize: she is a very accomplished young lady.

PHILENA E. CHASE

National Honor Society; Class Basketball 1, 2, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Nature Club 1, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 4; Red Cross Council 4; Purple Line 3, 4.

"Phi" is one of our best examples of efficiency. Whether it's the library, Red Cross, Nature Club or her studies, she is always there at just the right time.

D

CONSTANCE WAY CHICK

Hockey 2, 3; Washington Club 4.

There's a twinkle in her eyes. Watch out! Something's up. "Connie" is one good pal, and she sure knows her jokes.

GEORGE FREDERICK CHISHOLM

Cadets 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Cross Country 4; Junior Red Cross Council 4.

George is one of those quiet, obliging chaps whom it is a pleasure to know. Ask him what he did with the cigarette holder he got for Christmas.

MABEL LILIAN CLARKE

Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Spear Speaking, Hockey.

The labels on her suitcases would furnish reading matter for two weeks. They say she left her heart in California, but she still has a smile for us. Bon Voyage, "Billie."

MIRIAM M. CLARK

Junior Red Cross (Vice-President 2); Geology Club 4.

Miriam excels in the art of waving hair. Her best specimens are perceptible in grey or "white" hair. Have you noticed it?

CHARLOTTE CLOUDMAN

National Honor Society, Dramatic Club, Red Cross Council, Purple Line 4.

"Charle" is an energetic young sportswoman, best known, possibly, as "Kitty" in the Dramatic Club Play. She may have seemed a bit bashful in the love scenes, but she sure knows her horses.

JUNE CLOUGH

Junior Red Cross 1, 2; Glee Club 1; Dramatic 2, 3.

"Happy" is neither demure nor aggressive; she strikes the happy medium to which her dark hair and eyes are so conducive.

HAZEL E. COLE

Dramatic Club 4; Debating Club 1; Geology Club 4.

Of course everyone knows this little lady. It's a shame that those scintillating eyes of hers couldn't light on something nearer than Waterville; and that hair—well, everyone envies her that.

DORRANCE COLEMAN

Stamp Club 1, 2, 3, 4, (Sec. 4, Treas. 2, 3, 4); AMETHYST Board; Senior Class Play, Class Track.

Here's our giggling, blue-eyed senior. At the time of the "Rivals," Dorrance found that the nerve-racking occupation of eavesdropping on the gossiping senior girls took much of his time.

D

"Clarkie" 31

DOROTHY CONNOR

Glee Club 1, 2, 4; Dramatic Club 2.
Pretty "Dot" Connor is a merry soul. She likes to go to the theatre, and those eyes of hers serve to attract all escorts necessary.

ETHEL FRANCES CRESSEY

Art Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Glee Club 4; Washington Club 4; Special Orchestra 4.

Here is an artist whose talent is brought out both by means of her violin bow and by her paint brush.

BERTHA KNIGHT CROCKER

National Honor Society; Class Basketball 1, 2; Class President 1; Prize Speaking 1, 2, 3, 4; Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Nature Club 2; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Senior Class Play; Washington Club 4; "D" Club 4; AMETHYST Board; Forensic League.

Behold our orator, debater, actress, cook, driver extraordinary, and, over all, our loyal rooter for dear old Peaks Island,—a Pilgrim worth knowing.

JANET CROCKER

Everyone knows our quiet little Janet. She has a reserved seat in every theatre and she is known once to have talked continuously for ten minutes.

ELIZABETH ALMA CUDWORTH

Dramatic Club 4.

Gaze upon another of our quiet and dignified Seniors. Her nickname is "Pep" and she certainly has it. She is an author, too; short stories being her specialty.

RUTH CUMMINGS

Class Basketball 1; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Nature Club 1; Washington Club 4.

"Bwush" is one of these serious seniors, but under the mask of innocent eyes and a demure mouth, you'll find a roguishness which lends charm to a calm personality.

FRANCES ELAINE DANIELS

Basketball 1, 2; Dramatic Club 4; Geology Club 4.

Found: A little girl with bright golden curls and a perfect smile with one love for dancing and another for songs. Answers to the name of "Franny Dan".

FREDERICK L. DAVIS

Cadets 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Track 3; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 4.

Is everybody happy? Here's the boy with that certain appearance and that outstanding laugh. We haven't as yet found out where Freddy goes in his ramshackle Ford, but we have ideas!

RICHARD STANLEY DAVIS

Here's the boy with the coal-black hair. His truck is always filled with young ladies. He plans to be a mechanic and delights in repairing old cars.

VIRGINIA FRANCES DEARBORN

"Gin" has golden-brown wavy hair, hazel eyes and a pleasing personality. These have made her popular in Deering and will continue to do so in the future, we prophecy.

IVA LOUISE DOLLOFF

Glee Club 1, 3.

Here we have one of the best looking girls in our class. "Dolly" wants to be a nurse. Who wouldn't want to be ill if he could have her for a nurse?

BILLIE MARIE DOONE

Home Economics Club 1.

We wonder who the interest in Portland High is. Well, "Bill", you'll be missed when you leave Deering.

LEE C. DOONE

Golf 3, 4.

Don't be frightened. This isn't one of the terrible Doones; in fact, he's very shy and modest. You should see how sweetly he smiles when called on for a speech.

LOIS BEATRICE DOTEN

Glee Club 2.

We have never seen anyone more industrious than Lois. This willingness to work will enable her to accomplish big things, we're sure.

DOROTHY MAE DOUGLASS

Glee Club 4; Home Economics Club 1, 2.

Evidently "Dot" believes "Silence is Golden". However, we know by the merry twinkle in her eye that she is not always as quiet as she is in school.

LOUISE DUNTON

Dramatic Club 4; Glee Club 4.

"Kackie" never gets her Old Testament Kings mixed. A jolly good pal—always ready to lend pencils and shorthand paper. Her one weakness, as far as we know, is the movies.

D

Virginia

GLADYS MARIE DYER

We hear that "Missie" is going to be a real honest-to goodness business woman, with "Polly" as her helper, and she certainly has some past experience to her credit.

LAWRENCE DYER

Here's a fellow who is distinguished by his deep voice. With his vocal powers he could be a great success as a politician. He is very obliging, too.

BETTE CLIFFORD EASTMAN

Hockey 3; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Geology 4.

Here we have the girl with the wonderful smile and the lovely dimple. "Betts" has been with us but two years, coming from Waynflete; however, she is well liked by all of us.

CHRISTINE ELLIOT

Glee Club 1; Hockey 2, 3; Student Service 3; Washington Club 4.

"Chris" has lovely golden hair, clear, frank eyes, and a wonderful smile. She has a certain weakness for the piccolo and another fondness for golf. Question her about "Black".

MARGARET ETHERL EVELETH

She is another of your "Dancing Daughters". Here's the third period English class sunshine. Her speeches send hilarious laughter to the whole class.

HERBERT H. FILES

Orchestra 1, 2; Track 2; Cadets 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Herbie" has a word and a smile for everyone, and on any cold morning he may be seen pushing a certain Essex down the street.

BARBARA FOSTER

Washington Club 4.

Barbara is a soft-spoken girl, but the mischievous twinkle in her eyes give contradiction to her serious expression. We hope that her brief stay here has been a pleasant one.

PHILIP J. FOSTER

National Honor Society; Cadets 1, 2; Football (2nd team) 3, (varsity) 4; "D" Club 4; Washington Club 4; Class Baseball 2; Class Football 3.

We've watched you go from a cadet's uniform to football togs, Phil, and we know by the way you've played the game at Deering you'll be a success.

RUTH FULLERTON

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4.

The smartest girl in our class! We are all proud of your rank, and we've enjoyed your companionship, too. If we hear a certain contagious giggle in some other world, we'll know it's "Trouble" again.

JEANNE RYDER GAULT

Glee Club; Student Service.

Although Jeanne's smooth, wavy hair and her serious eyes make her seem rather composed, she's a real pal to those who know her, and that's what counts. One hundred per cent, Jeanne, and a world of happiness in the future.

MAURICE GODDARD

Track 4.

Among Deering's points of interest is "Rastus" Goddard. In scholastics his work is laudable. In Oral English, he certainly is audible. Congratulations to our friend from the hoith.

EDNA MAY GOODRICH

National Honor Society; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4 (Concertmistress 4); Basketball (class) 1, 2; (varsity) 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Dramatic Club 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Tennis 2, 4; Student Service 4; Washington Club 4; AMETHYST Board.

So you want to be a lawyer, Goodie. If we were to judge, we'd say you're a case in yourself, but since we're not, we'll wish you Portia's success.

JOHN J. GORHAM

Baseball 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2; Football 2; Track (class) 3.

Well, here's our dashing drug-store Romeo! Curly brown hair, and marvellous brown eyes. Notre Dame is to have the honor of our self-styled Carideo's presence next year.

CARL GRAVES

Cross Country 3, 4; Indoor Track 4; "D" Club 3, 4.

Red hair spells determination rather than a hot temper for "Bat". Proof may be furnished by anyone who saw his sportmanship at the Four-Cornered Meet of 1931. It's a fine spirit, Carl. We like it.

ANNIE MAE GREGOR

Home Economics Club 1.

Annie is that tall, good-looking girl from North Deering. She has hair that makes us forget to wonder just why gentlemen prefer "Blondie". We don't blame them.

MARY CAROLINE GRENDALL

Art Club 3, 4; Nature Club 4; Washington Club 4.

"Peggy's" a wonderfully good sport and awfully attractive; you can see that for yourself. She is self-composed, but she has that certain artistic temperament.

WILLIAM ALBERT GRIFFITH

Baseball, Football 3, 4; Track 3.

We know another one of our bashful athletes, with his spirit, will make a good forester. It is said that he has quite an interest in a "Darling" girl.

ROBERT M. HAGGETT

Stamp Club 2; Cadets 1, 2, 4.

"Bob" is the brave boy who comes from the wilds of Rosemont to invade our edifice of learning. We have heard that he is a stamp collector. May he get stamps from Mars.

RUTH M. HAKINS

Basketball 1, 2; Girl Reserves 1, 2; Hockey 2, 3, 4.

"Teddie" stands for service in the cafeteria. We asked for chocolate ice cream the first of the year, but we're still getting vanilla. Never mind, Ted, it's mighty good vanilla, and since you insist, we like it.

DOROTHY GERTRUDE HALVERSON

Dramatic Club 1, 4; Student Service; Glee Club 2; Hockey 4; Basketball 1, 2; Red Cross 1, 2, 3, 4; Washington Club.

Well, if it ithunt Dot Halverthon, in purthon! The gurl with the charm for bathful boys—. It mutht be that thmle! We'll see you in the movies.

JAMES S. HAMILTON, JR.

National Honor Society; Football (2nd team) 2, (varsity) 3, 4; "D" Club 4; Baseball 3, 4; Basketball 3; Student Service 3; Dramatic Club 4; Glee Club 1, 2.

Hello, folks, Hamilton's the name. That's "Jim" all over. With a smile on his face and determination in his heart, "Jim" will reach the top, we feel sure.

JOHN HAMMET

Manager of basketball 3; "D" Club; Manager of Band 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club.

One of the best liked chaps to be graduated. His wit, helpfulness, and personality have made many friends for him.

NIELS R. HAMSTROM

Outdoor Track 2, 3, 4; Indoor Track 3, 4; "D" Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Cheer Leader 4.

Herald, the blond viking of Deering who will be remembered by his ability as a trackman and his alto voice. "Long after he's gone His cheers echo on."

EVELYN EMILY HANSCOM

Glee Club 1, 2, 3.

Here's our midget from Mabel Street, Always quiet and modest and neat, Always wearing a cheery smile, Evie's surely a friend worthwhile.

D

MARJORIE HANSCOM

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Field Hockey 2, 3.

"Marge" is one of those girls rarely seen without a cheery smile. Keep it up, "Marge," you know that smiles are what made the world grow round!

HAZEL H. HANSON

Dramatic Club.

Have you ever seen Hazel and Isabel separated during the four years that they have been with us? We have doubts. We'd like to read some of those letters from Boston, too.

HENRY LEWIS HANSON

Baseball (varsity) 2, 3, 4; "D" Club 3, 4.

"Lou's" favorite pastime is playing pool at which he toils morning, noon, and night,—that is, when he isn't talking like an English baron. "Cheerio, old bean!"

RALPH M. HANSON

Class baseball 1, 2; Radio Club 1.

Ralph is a happy-go-lucky boy famous for his laugh. He is especially amusing in chemistry class when he seems to be in his natural element.

ELEANOR HILDERGARDE HARRIS

Home Economics Club 1, 2.

If you cannot find Eleanor at home during the winter months, you can almost always find her at some popular skating pond. We wish her luck and happiness.

GEORGE HASKELL

Latin Play.

Believe it or not—this longfellow has military aspirations. He goes across the water in the summer—Great Diamond Island. He's another of your retiring, romantic chaps.

CLOVIS ARLENE HAWKES

Glee Club 1; Basketball (2nd squad) 1, 2; Washington Club 4.

Clovis will make a fine nurse, as she has a very soothing effect on some people. We feel sure that Clovis' patients will never die.

FRANCES HAYDEN

National Honor Society; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity 3; Hockey 2, 3; Red Cross 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Nature Club 1, 4; Washington Club 4; AMETHYST Board.

Franny is one of the true supporters of the 1931 class. She has served Deering faithfully and loyally. May she carry on the good work at Bates.

D

WARREN HAYDEN

Geology Club.

Here is our future movie magnate who knows more about moving pictures than nearly anyone else East of Hollywood. Keep it up and some day you may be another Will Hays, Warren.

DORIS IRENE HENNIGAR

Another one of Miss Farnham's great problems. She is always seen going into the library fifth period. We wonder why. Best wishes, "Dot."

J. PORTER HENNINGS

Cadets 1, 2; Washington Club 4.

Porter's interests lie in designing yachts. If you ever consider having one built consult him and you'll get the best.

RICHARD STOCKWELL HENRY

National Honor Society; Debating Club 1; Class Track 2, 3; Varsity 3, 4; Washington Club 4; "D" Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Senior Class Play; AMETHYST Board.

Patrick Henry had nothing on this Henry as a speaker. In addition, his literary powers are something wonderful to behold. We expect, considering his clever description of the American Girl, to find him editing a famous magazine before long.

NORMAN WILLIAM HJORT

Dramatic Club 4; Baseball 3.

"Specks" is another one of those wise-crackers. We wonder how often he beats "Stack" in golf, and why he likes to spend his evenings on the Prom.

ISABEL HODGKINS

Glee Club 1; Basketball (class) 1, 2, 4; (varsity) 2, 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3; Dramatic Club 4.

"Iddy" has been on our basketball team for three years. If she pursues her ambition at the same rate of speed that she has played basketball, she'll no doubt travel to Mars.

MARJORIE ELINOR HODGKINS

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1; Student Service 1; Dramatic Club 1, 4; Red Cross Chairman 3, 4.

With a smile so sweet
(She's a girl petite)
Our Marjorie wends her way.
She's pretty and neat,
To her friends she's complete
And always has something to say.

ASHLEY HORTON

"Ash" is far-famed for his good humor. If you don't believe it, ask someone who knows him. He and friend "Johnny" Roberts furnish plenty of entertainment for the 5th and 6th period chemistry class.

D

DOROTHY LILLIAN SANBORN HOVEY

Art Club 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 2, 3; Geology Club 4.

Well, boys, when you take Dot to a dance, don't pass any open flower shops or department stores, as she adores orchids and fur coats. Beware, boys.

CLAIRE HOYLE

Dramatic Club; Senior Class Play; Geology Club.

Since Claire has been in Deering a new disease has developed among the boys—Clairitis. Luckily it's harmless, for all the boys have it. The girls like her, too. Imagine!

HARRY WESTON HUBBARD

Cadets.

Harry, himself! We believe that Harry is true to the Palmolive Soap Co. He has that certain complexion. Harry's a good scholar, too, and we wish him loads of luck!

MARJORIE ERNESTINE HUSTON

Glee Club 1; Student Service 3; (secretary of Student Service 4).

We hear that "John" is very much interested in telephones and telephone "Bills." May there never be any unpaid bills for her to worry about.

KENNETH E. JACKSON

National Honor Society; Football 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; (class) Varsity 4; "D" Club 3, 4; Washington Club 4.

Here's Deering's long-legged tackle who paces the corridor with a yard and a half at a stride. He was outstanding on this year's football team. "Ken's" an exceedingly popular fellow, too.

MARJORIE JACKSON

Dramatics 1, 4.

"Margie" is efficient, cheerful, inspiring and loyal. Words alone can't say more, but we of '31 wish her everlasting success and happiness. If you are ever in need of a true friend, look up this young lady.

HELEN ELIZABETH JACOBSEN

Tennis 3; Student Service 3; Home Economics Club 1.

Blue eyes, locks so-called light,
A good sport, cheery and bright;
In summer or winter, she's just the same.
Who? Well, Helen Jacobsen's her name.

RAYMOND H. JENKINS

Radio Club 1; Class Basketball 1; Junior Red Cross (treasurer) 3, 4.

"Ray" is the curly-haired member of the Hanson-Jenkins pair. We like his taste in girls, too. Perhaps it is a part of his Red Cross work to entertain pretty misses.

D

EDITH ALTHEA JOHNSON

Glee Club 1; Debating Club 3; Radio Club 1; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 4.

Here, folks, is the girl with the broad grin. "Ede" adores football games; she wants to be a reporter. We certainly wish you luck, Edith. Adios, amiga mia.

KENNETH H. JOHNSTONE

Debating Club 1; Basketball (class) 3, 4; (varsity) 4 (manager); baseball (varsity) 3, 4.

"Bud" is the boy with a bent for banjos, basketball, and baseball. Desks aren't built for his long legs. However, this won't bother him when he's playing for Paul Whiteman.

ALICE V. JORDAN

Alice is one of these conscientious maidens who always has her lessons. She is a devotee of Henry ('s) Ford, and hopes some day to go to "Sydney." Best of luck, Alice, wherever you go.

ALISON KATHLEEN KIDDER

National Honor Society; Debating Club 1; Dramatic Club 3, 4.

We'll promptly engage in battle with anyone, if there is anyone, who doesn't admit that our "Al" is clever, generous, sweet, frank, attractive, and loyal, plus.

GENEVA ETHEL KITCHEN

Student Service 1; Glee Club 1, 2; Dramatic Club 4; Dramatic Club Play 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Washington Club 4; AMETHYST Board.

Kitchen's the name. We wonder what will happen at Deering next fall when they realize that "Skitch" and her wonderful smile are gone for good.

ALLEN JOSEPH KNIGHT

Cadets 1, 2; Track 1.

He is truly a modern "knight." "His strength is as the strength of ten because his heart is pure."

ALVENA ELEANOR KNIGHT

Student Service 3; Home Economics Club 1.

Is it a secret if we tell why Alvena never missed a car from school? She should let George do it. Never mind, Alvena, you have won your place with us, so you can afford to be independent.

FLORENCE ALLEN KNIGHT

Student Service 1; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Debating Club 4; Washington Club 4.

"Flossie" can sing, play, dance, and laugh. She's the kind of a friend you can't help confiding in. And she's always willing to lend you her compact. What more do you need?

Ken Johnson

D

GEORGE ROBERT LANGZETTEL

National Honor Society; Managing Editor "Purple Line" 3, 4; AMETHYST Board, L'Atelier 4; Executive Board 4; Track (varsity) 4.

"Let George do it." Surely there is no one more capable or willing than he. We'll wait to hear the report of your success, George, and we're sure you won't disappoint us.

FREDERICK HALE LARRABEE

National Honor Society; Art Club 1; (Treas.) 2, 3, 4; Stamp Club 3; Cross Country (class) 4; Basketball (class) 4; Washington Club 4; AMETHYST Board.

Fred represents us in artistic temperament, and if he doesn't overdo skiing in the meantime, we expect him to become one of the world's great artists.

LOUISE M. LARSEN

Basketball 1, 2; (varsity) 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2; Glee Club 3; (President 4); "D" Club 4.

Here is the captain of the Senior Hockey team and a good basketball player. Can that girl jump around! She sings too. Is that why they call her "Wheezie"?

KATHERINE LEIGHTON

Nature Club 1; Hockey 1; Dramatic Club 1, 4; Student Service 3; Library 2, 4.

Kay believes in Miss Hueston's principle of making the lungs strong by laughing. If you've never heard her, look her up. She's a peach; you'll like her.

MALCOLM L. LESTER

Track (varsity) 1; (class) 1, 2; Football (class) 1, 2, 3.

Did this good-looking fellow pose for the Indian head on the nickel? Keep on matching them and some day you'll be a millionaire, "Mac".

LELIA M. LIBBY

Glee Club 1; Orchestra 4; Dramatic Club 4.

Lelia comes from way out in the wilds—West Falmouth. A long way for an education. And she loves the Jefferson—does she aspire to be an actress?

MARGARET ANN LIBBY

Glee Club 3, 4; Washington Club 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4.

Why does "Peggy" wear that ring on a string around her neck? Does she need an anchor to keep her steady?

ELIZABETH SCOTT LINCOLN

National Honor Society; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; "Purple Line," 3, 4; Student Service 2, 3; Dramatic Club 4.

Earnest, Likeable, Interesting, Zealous, Athletic, Blue-eyed, Efficient, Talented, Happy.

Loyal, Intellectual, Neat, Calm, Obliging, Literary, Natural.

D

ELLA MAE LUCAS

We know that Ella has many interesting outside activities. Our greatest regret is that more have not known her better, for we feel that she would make a mighty good friend.

RUBY ELEANOR LUNT

Glee Club 1; Glee Club 4; Dramatic Club 4; Dramatic Club Play 4.

Found—A good friend with a cheerful disposition. "Reuban" always sees the bright side of life—especially in giving her oral English speeches.

DOROTHY MAUDE LYNÄ

She came to us from the hills of Vermont. She does not "choose to run" or to be disturbed by what goes on around her. Whether this indifferent attitude is feigned or real we have yet to learn.

CHARLES MARBLE, JR.

Glee Club; Harmonica Band; Geology Club. Charles is a "hard" reader. We expect him to be a great writer of mystery stories or a critic. He rides horses and swaps guns. What a man!

DOROTHY MARR

National Honor Society; Student Service 1; Glee Club 1; Basketball 3, 4; Tennis 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 3.

This is the quiet girl that you so often see but do not hear. Many quiet people have been famous and we hope that she may follow in their illustrious footsteps.

ANGELINA MARTELLA

"Angie" is the sweet heroine type with large, dark eyes and a charming frank smile. She's a good pal to everyone and a sincere, dependable friend.

WILLIAM MARSHMAN

Here is a boy who stirs the hearts of women by the charm of his golden voice and curly hair. Who knows? He may be another Rudy Vallee.

WALTER BERNARD MASON

Geology Club.

What Walter needs is a beautiful girl to take him in hand. He's so shy that he doesn't even frighten the fish when he goes fishing.

Bill TH-31

D

GARDINER MAXCY

Class Track 1, 3, 4; Varsity Track 4; "D" Club; Business Manager AMETHYST; Staff Photographer Purple Line; Senior Class Play.

Here's the bathtub tenor of the Class Play. Among his accomplishments are photography, printing, and that trip to Scandinavia. He always looks as if he could never get enough "Jack".

ELIZABETH STUART McCANN

Glee Club; Antique Club; Basketball Class 3; Geology Club.

Another one of our youthful Florence Nightingales. If "Betty" is as clever a nurse as she is swimmer, we know that this will be a better and healthier world by 1941.

MARY ALICE McGOVERN

Glee Club 1; Basketball 3, 4; Field Hockey 2, 3, 4.

For four years "Mac" has worked hard on our basketball team and has become one of the best guards we have. Three rousing cheers for a good basketball player and a jolly classmate.

WILLIAM McLEOD

Cadets 1, 2, 3, 2nd Lt.; Property Manager.

"Diesel Engine—a type of internal-combustion engine in which only air is drawn in by the suction stroke and the—" Oh, well, ask Bill the rest. He knows!

ORRIS MERRILL

Field Hockey and Basketball 1; Junior Red Cross 2; Dramatic Club 3; Washington Club 4.

Announcing to the world at large that "Nigger" is planning to give U. of M. a big break by gracing its campus with her enticing smile and roguish eyes.

JAMES MILLER

National Honor Society; Track 1, 2, 4; Football 3, 4; "D" Club 2, 3, 4; Cadets 1; Washington Club 4.

Here's our Spanish athlete, a regular woman-hater (so he says), humorist, and the best sport in the world if you want anything done.

GERALD CURTIS MILLIKEN

Class Football; Art Club; Track; Glee Club; Dramatic Club.

"Jerry" is one of "Buck's" hurdlers, sometimes he floats and sometimes he falls over them. He is not only a trackman but an artist. Keep it up, "Jerry", you'll be a Raphael some day.

HOWARD MILLIKEN

National Honor Society; Football 3, 4; Basketball 3; Baseball 3, 4; Band 4; Orchestra 4; Ass't Advertising Manager of Year Book 4; Executive Board 4.

Without a doubt "Howie" has talent. As a musician, speechmaker, athlete, or friend he can't be excelled. We're sure he will make a good doctor, too.

WILLIAM B. MITCHELL

Washington Club 4.

How many of you know that '31 has a "star"? He was the "Lone Star" and Pete's standby Freshman year. Studious? Yes! Good-natured? By all means! This is certainly "Mitch"!

LOUISE MONSON

A good sport, ever-ready for any occasion, and one of our football team's most ardent followers! The college that claims her is getting a student valuable in every way.

ALBERT R. MOORE, JR.

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 4; AMETHYST Board 4; Washington Club 4; Dramatic Club play 4; Radio Club 1; Debating Club 1.

People call him "Einstein" and friends call him "pal", but call him what you will, he "toots" a wicked clarinet.

PHILIP S. MORRELL

Art Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Geology Club 4; Dramatic Club 4; Stamp Club 1.

As "Phil" likes his girl friends very young, I guess there is no chance for us. It is rumored that he sends Christmas cards to little girls.

JOHN F. MOSES

Debating Club 1, 2; Radio Club 2; Glee Club 3; Washington Club 3; Geology Club 4; Class Football, Basketball, Baseball.

What ho, Jack! You can pull the one about having a flat tire, but when it comes to "the horse dropped dead on the sleigh ride"—well, it just will not go over.

BERNARD L. MOXCEY

Cadets 1, 2; Class Football 2; Dramatic Club 4.

Now you have the opportunity of meeting a curly-haired gentleman who denies all acquaintance with the lesser but louder sex. We wish we were all blessed with his iron will.

MARIE E. MOYNIHAN

National Honor Society; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Manager 4; Student Service 1, 2; "D" Club; Glee Club 1, 2; Washington Club 4.

Here is the lady who wants what she wants when she wants it. And does she get it? Just ask her. Innocent heart-breaker! The beauty of it is, Marie doesn't realize her powers.

FLORENCE MELVINA NELSON

Meet us next summer at three o'clock, "Flo", and we'll test your tennis game. There is no reason why it shouldn't be a mighty good one. Perhaps afterwards we'll need all your talent in nursing.

D

LEONORA NEWBERT

Glee Club 1; Geology Club 4.

It's funny what a library slip will do. But we all know that Mr. Emmons has worn out many pencils for this modest maid of good old Deering, and we're all wondering what the attraction is.

FLORENCE OWEN

Art Club.

"Flossie" came to us this year from Edward Little, so we don't know much about her. She is very unpretentious and seems to fit very well into school activities.

LOUISE THAXTER PAYSON

Tennis 1, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2; Basketball 1, 2; Hockey 2.

Introducing the young lady whose ambition it is to see the world after leaving D. H. S. Well, "Payson", here's your chance to try some fancy dives from the deck of the S. S. Leviathan!

MADELAINE PEASLEY

Glee Club 1; Dramatic Club 4.

Supreme court reigns in "105" when Miss Peasley and Miss Webb get together! "Maddy" has one of those rhythmic souls we hear so much about, which is what makes her dance so well, we suppose.

MARGARET E. PERKINS

National Honor Society; Debating Club 1, 2, 3, 4; "D" Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club Play 3; National Forensic League 2, 3, 4; Bates League 1, 2, 3, 4; Purple Line Board, AMETHYST Board, Washington Club 4; Prize Speaking 4; Basketball (class) 1, 2; Senior Class Play 4.

"Peggy" is one of the most prominent and most popular girls of our class. She could easily be called our leading lady. It is also said that her two greatest problems are gentlemen friends and clothes.

WILMA ELLEN PERKINS

AMETHYST Board; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Nature Club 1, 4; Dramatics 1, 3, 4; Washington Club 4; Sec. Red Cross Council 4; Sec. Dramatic Club 3; Sec. Debating 4.

"Willie" has been heard to complain of having a sky-line of vest buttons, but that doesn't in the least affect her argumentative ability. Her pep and humor make everyone around her happy.

BOND PERRY

National Honor Society; AMETHYST Board; Purple Line Staff; Senior Class Play; Dramatic Club 4; Class Cross Country 2; Aviation Club; Stamp Club, Debating Club Debating 3, 4; "D" Club 3, 4.

Hello, everybody! Here is 1931's "Floyd Gibbons"—a popular Deering go-getter. If there's anything you want done, Bond is the fellow who will help you out.

ROBERT PERRY

Introducing "Bob" Perry. The pride of Miss Hueston's public speaking classes. His ability to make lengthy speeches is simply astounding.

D

Peggy Perkins

ALVILDA ELIZABETH PETERSEN

Geology Club; Dramatic Club.

"Al" is the pretty blonde with the charming smile. Girls could take lessons from her in managing boy friends. She knows how.

ROGER C. PETERSON

Band 2, 3, 4; Washington Club 4.

At the moment, Roger's many pals are busy wracking their brains in an endeavor to select a worthy career for him. Some seem to have visions of him waving a baton over the So-and-Such Symphony Orchestra.

JOHN WILLIAM PRIDE

We have with us a bashful boy
For whom public speaking is a joy.
All Valentinos step aside
To usher in our "Johnny" Pride.

ELEANOR G. PRIEST

Glee Club; Dramatic Club.

Our AMETHYST detectives have seen this fair young lady in the company of a tall, dark-complexioned young man. We wonder who he is, Eleanor? May luck always travel hand in hand with you.

ELEANOR MAY PRINCE

Glee Club 1.

This is one of the young ladies we always see rushing madly down the corridor at the end of the sixth period. Never mind, Eleanor, keep up this spirit and we know you will succeed.

BARBARA RANKIN

National Honor Society; Class Secretary 1, 4; Red Cross 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Service 1; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club Play 4; Nature Club 2, 4; Purple Line Staff 4; AMETHYST Board 4.

"Barbie" pleads guilty to editing all these grinds. Direct all kind criticisms to Mrs. Hobbs of "Not So Bad", a role made famous by "Barbie".

PHILIP H. RHODES

National Honor Society; Radio Club 1; Stamp Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Dramatic Club Play 4; Senior Class Play 4; Class Football 2; Class Officer 1, 3; Purple Line 3, 4; AMETHYST 4; L'Atelier 4.

One of our woman-hunters; a tall gentleman who looks like El Brendal in a derby. Aimed for M. I. T., then to study chemical engineering, and then perhaps become a bond salesman.

GEORGE RILEY

Class Football 2, 3; Class Baseball 3; Baseball Manager 4; "D" Club 4.

George is the fellow with the old Ford. He is like a bottle of root beer. Always full of pep. He never fails to make friends and we all know that he will be a success.

D

M. IRENE ROBERTS

Dramatic Club 1, 2; Spear's Prize speaking 1, 2.

With round, brown eyes like "Renie's", anyone could become a box-office success. She has the low husky voice you hear described so often. She's really what Deering needs to complete the class of 1931.

JOHN K. ROBERTS

National Honor Society; Football 2, 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Basketball 4; "D" Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4.

Monarch of sports, philosopher of the classroom, and actor swelligant, he is a model of the curly-headed athletes all the girls fall for.

MARION FRANCES ROBERTS

Gaze upon a quiet, pensive young lady. She doesn't talk very much, but what she does say is worth listening to. (Editor's note: Can this be possible?)

PHOEBE MARIE ROBINSON

Art Club 4; Geology Club 4; Secretary of Geology Club.

Phoebe is a sports enthusiast, with the ambition to go to school some more. Probably if we told our Latin specialist he'd go into that story of his about the word "ludus" meaning game or school.

EDITH B. ROBSON

Glee Club 1; Radio Club 2; Washington Club 4. Here is our "Little Ede", known as one of Deering's best dancers. She is demure, but just remember that T. N. T. looks harmless. Be nice to her. She may report evidence of your murder mystery some day.

DOROTHY ANN ROCKWELL

Glee Club 1; Cafeteria 3, 4.

"Dot" wants to be a nurse. Her pretty blonde hair and sparkling eyes will either shorten or lengthen the convalescence of her patients according to their resistance.

DANIEL O. ROSE, JR.

Track Class 1; Track Varsity 2, 3, 4; Cross Country 2, 4; "D" Club 2, 3, 4.

Hail, the king of Mechanics! He is also a track man, clipping bark off his shins on the high hurdles and wallowing in the mud of the cross-country course.

H. EDWIN SCHADE

Track Class 1; Varsity, Ass't Mgr. 3, Mgr. 4; Baseball, Class 2; Dramatic Club 1, 4; "D" Club 4; Student Service 3.

Probably everyone knows "Ed" Schade, track team manager and famous magazine salesman. Keep up the good work "Ed". Some day you'll be editor-in-chief of the Curtis Publishing Co.

D

ARTHUR B. SHERRY, JR.

Baseball, Class 1; Football 1, 2; Basketball 2.

If we need more help to crawl out of this business depression, "Art" is the man for us. All he needs to do is give us one of his speeches and we're off again.

RUTH ELIZABETH SHURTLEFF

Basketball, Class 1, 3; Dramatic Club 4; Washington Club 4.

Have you ever noticed the girl who drives to school in the nice-looking car? Well, that is "Ruthie". We can vouch for her as someone who is always ready for a good time.

ALICE ELIZABETH SISCO

Basketball, Class 1, 2; Nature Club 1; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Washington Club 4; Freshman Executive Committee; Spear Speaking Contest 4.

If there is anyone who doesn't know Alice, step right up, for she makes a mighty fine friend. If you want recommendations, you might consult a certain wavy-haired Deering graduate who has a dog named "Maud".

ALWILDA SMALL

If this tiny person had been introduced to us as Alwilda we might have supplied the "Small" part. We haven't had much opportunity to know her, but from what we've seen we'd say she's a mighty sweet girl.

DOROTHEA L. SMART

Hockey 2; Debating Club 1, 2; Varsity 3; Secretary 4; "D" Club 4; National Forensic League 4; Student Service 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Geology Club 4; Washington Club 4.

Is the English too difficult for you? Do you have to give a debate? Go to "Dot"; she'll help you. Debater, student, friend, here's a girl who will reach the top!

MARJORIE SMART

National Honor Society; Basketball, Class 1, 2, 3; Varsity 3; Hockey, Class 1, 2, 3; Dramatic Club 4; Dramatic Club Play 4; AMETHYST Board—Girls' Athletic editor; Tennis 1, 4;

Miss Hueston had difficulty in teaching Albert Moore to really rage at "Midge" in the Dramatic Club play and no wonder. We couldn't, either. She's a wonderful girl with a laugh we'll never forget.

BARBARA SMITH

National Honor Society; Field Hockey 1; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Tennis 1, 2, 4; Champion team 4; Art Club 4; Washington Club 4; Art Editor AMETHYST; Wood Carving 3.

Who doesn't know the girl who not only wears overalls but looks very attractive in them. You have great artistic ability, "Barb", and we wish you every success in all that you do.

UNA LOUISE SMITH

AMETHYST Board.

At one time we thought that this quiet and demure maiden was going to leave us, but the "Brackett" has held her like a polish "Buff" to the goal.

BARBARA SNELL

Ever notice "Barb's" eyes? No? Well, do so at your first opportunity. They're large and brown, like all musicians. And that reminds us, "Barb" is also known by the way she plays the piano.

HELEN STARLING

Dramatic Club; Geology Club.

Helen is the type to drive a big car with the accelerator to the floor, and be perfectly happy. She doesn't need the rest of the world to amuse her. Helen, for the open road.

EDWARD STETSON

Cadets; Latin Play.

'Twas Edward, who, clad in disgracefully short skirts, fought the elderly Antellus so valiantly in the Latin play, only to meet ignoble defeat. We know that he won't let anything lick him when he goes into the cold world.

LAURENCE STODDARD

Football 4; Class Baseball 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Pirate" is the pride of Rosemont and "209". He's as good as he looks, and with his personality and determination he is sure to be a success.

WILLIAM J. SULLIVAN

"Bill" is a bright spot in any class. He is a little fellow, and his big bass voice might surprise you at first, but you'd soon get to like it, and after all what could he do without it?

KATHERINE HELEN TALBOT

Glee Club; Basketball 3, 4.

"Kitty" belongs to the class of girls we think of as nice to know. Smiles are the easiest thing in the world for her and it isn't particularly hard to smile back.

ELINOR CAROL TEBBETTS

Dramatic Club 1, 4; Student Service 3.

The old saying "Beautiful but dumb" does not hold true in the case of our little osteopath-to-be. Imagine Elinor giving treatment to a 300-pounder.

STUART E. THOITS

National Honor Society; Tennis 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Washington Club 4; President Senior Class; Senior Class Play.

"Stu" is the type of person who thinks nothing of mid-years, or a passage in Virgil he has never seen before. He's rather quiet, but he has a sense of humor we envy.

D

Laurence Stoddard

MYRA THOMAS

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; President Glee Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2; Red Cross 3.

Myra is our "Energetic Songbird". We hear that her speeches in Problems are quite "Barron". However, Myra, we all hope that Good Fortune and Lady Luck will follow you through the years.

JANE THOMPSON

Vice President Junior Class. Executive Board Senior Class. Photograph Editor AMETHYST.

"The Duchess" is a girl it is a pleasure to know. Poise and personality plus! She seems a little bored with life, but can she dance!

PHILIP F. THORNE

National Honor Society; Glee Club 1; President of Class 3; Manager of Football 3; "D" Club 3, 4; Editor of AMETHYST 4; Dramatic Club 4; Class Play 4; L'Atelier.

At last! Valedictorian, Editor-in-chief of AMETHYST, lawyer-to-be, and what not! Mr. Linscott's delight and Miss Hueston's despair. "Phil" holds a big spot in all our hearts.

KEVIN TOBIN

"Kev" is the type of fellow who would stay at basketball practice all day in order to get one shot at the basket. He is always ready with a winning smile and a helping hand.

JUNE TRIDER

Harmonica Band; Glee Club.

"Tootsie" is another girl from North Deering. We understand that June is shy but that is a question. We wonder where she goes when we see her sailing by in her Ford.

GRACE UPHAM

National Honor Society; Basketball 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3; Nature Club 4; Dramatic Club 4; Glee Club 3.

It really doesn't matter what line of work you need advice in. Grace could help. She can play basketball, write poetry, draw, speak, or understand. And by "can", we mean she's mighty good at it.

LENA MARCELLA VALENTE

AMETHYST Board Typist.

Lena is that nice looking brunette who always wears that winning smile. There is no doubt but that someone will fall hard. But take our advice, Lena, and don't smile too affectionately.

EUGENE H. VERGE

Band; Orchestra.

Here is "Gene", one of the musicians of "209". He spends his time playing the "Sax", much to the neighbors' distress. We all look to see big things from you. So long, Pal.

RAYMOND WADE

Orchestra 1; Geology 1.

"Ray" is a crack geologist. He is not himself unless studying some new collection of rock, except, perhaps, when there is some mention made of a particular rifle. Here's wishing you success in later life in whatever you undertake.

ELEANOR BEATRICE WAITE

Home Economics Club; Harmonica Band.

One of North Deering's delegates to our institution of learning. We are wondering who the young man is who drops this quiet young lady at our gates each morning.

ADELBERT WAKEFIELD

Cadets 1, 2.

The distinguishing feature of this "flaming" youth is almost unbelievable. He actually doesn't attempt the Joe Brown yell. He spends his time en parlant.

EDMUND L. WALKER

Orchestra 1; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3.

To those who have wondered: "Otey's" nickname comes from the comic strip of a certain large newspaper of which he is an ardent reader. However, "Otey" has never yet been known to fail a friend in need.

FLORENCE MAY WEBB

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Secretary of Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4.

Here comes "Flossie" with the contagious smile. Her sneeze frightens the entire 3d period English class, including Miss Harris, who thought it must be that "Lorna Doone" was too difficult for her.

WILLIAM EDWARD WHITE

"D" Club; Dramatic Club; Vice-President Geology Club; Glee Club; Cross Country 1; Indoor Track 2, 3, 4; Captain Track 4.

"Frenchy" is our fast little trackman. He tells all the world that he craves to imitate Rudy Vallee. Is singing similar to that of the crooning tenor a fitting climax for our speedy "Frenchy"?

FULTON WILCOX, JR.

Track.

"Fult" is one of "Buck's" hurdlers. We're sure that this young man will hurdle every obstacle that comes in the path on his way to the top.

CHRISTINE WILEY

Art Club 1, 2, 3, 4; President Art Club 4; Glee Club 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4.

"Chris" is the girl who knows all the popular songs and latest dance quirks. No doubt she will be one of New York's leading fashion illustrators.

MARGARET WILKINSON

"Miggs" has a rare smile in her dark eyes. She means it, too. If you are once lucky enough to get it you have a friend you know will last.

VINCENT G. WILLISTON

Vincent seems interested in antiques. Recently he added a rare old Ford and a motorcycle (vintage of 1800) to his collection. We don't blame him for there is a great deal of money in the antique business.

ELIZABETH FRANCES WILSON

Glee Club 1.

Her name is Betty Wilson
She likes the spice in life.
And when she rolls those eyes—
She surely causes strife.

FREDERIC C. WILSON

Baseball 1; Cadets 4; "D" Club 1.

Found: A young gentleman who eats, drinks and sleeps baseball! As a sideline he has charge of sleigh parties during the cold winter months, but with spring days—more baseball.

RAYMOND HUSTON WILSON

Cadets 1.

Here he is, gentle reader, gaze upon him, for we may never have the pleasure of seeing him again. You've been a good sport, Ray, and we all like you. Best of luck in the future in dear old West Falmouth.

HAZEL WINSLOW

She sees the joyful things in life
And smiles her way through toil and strife.
Loathing pretence, she does with cheerful will
What others talk of while their hands are still.

KATHERINE MARIE WOLFF

"Kay" came from New York this year and immediately "clicked" with all her classmates. Her favorite indoor sport, other than dancing, seems to be arguing with Mr. Harvell.

HAROLD M. WOODBURY

Basketball 3, 4; Captain 4; Baseball 3, 4; "D" Club 3, 4; President "D" Club 4; Washington Club 4; Class office Executive Committee 1, 4.

Here's to our classmate, the president of the "D" Club and captain of the basketball team. Keep it up "Woodie". We hope you smile as cheerfully all the time as we have seen you smile here.

"Woodie"

"Helena" Woodill

HELENA M. WOODILL

Glee Club 1.

It will be the good fortune of some big business man to draw this personable little miss as a private secretary. We know she'll make a big hit in the business world.

LEROY P. WORMELL

Track 4.

"Berg" is our amateur burglar catcher. The policeman's friend, that's Roy. Highwaymen had better beware of th's travelling dynamite when he sets out to see the world.

On Our Graduation

By J. ORTON BUCK, JR.

Our High School days are drawing to a close.
 'Tis not a twilight. 'Tis a dawn anew
 That burns with radiant colors, gorgeous hues
 Bespeaking promise of a day that glows
 Still brighter. That brilliant promised day—who knows
 What it may hold, what lovely morning dew,
 What splendid noon, what peaceful evening, too?
 At least, adventure with that day unfolds.

After It's Over

PHILIP RHODES

On this exam I've done my best,
 The best I e'er can do;
 I've tried so hard to pass this test
 That it will bother you;
 I wrote so fast it's hard to read,
 The spelling may be poor,
 These thoughts have come from my own head,
 I've done my best I'm sure!

Last Will and Testament of Class of 1931

By MARJORIE JACKSON

As we, the seniors, are about to leave these halls of joys and sorrows we find it necessary to bequeath what is left of the place to the underclassmen. It is because of our generous dispositions that we now make this last will and testament of the class of thirty-one.

1. To Mr. Wing and the faculty we leave our appreciation for what they have done for us.
2. Florence Knight leaves her giggle to the next person who sits in the front seat of 108.
3. Jeanne Gault leaves her stateliness to Frances Lindsay.
4. Bond Perry won't leave his speaking ability to anyone, he may need to argue later. (Wife or prof?)
5. Edna Goodrich leaves her position as concert mistress to whoever can qualify for the chair.
6. Gardiner Maxcy and "Frenchie" White leave their best wishes to "Bob" Stevens, Deering's track bet of the future.
7. "Bush" Cummings won't part with her smile. She is saving it for future use.
8. Albert Moore leaves (sweet)? songs and memories to Mr. Bean.
9. Eleanor Black leaves her height to Frances Cobb.
10. "Art" Sherry leaves his hairdresser to Charlie Geer. (She gives wonderful waves, Art.)
11. "Bee" Crocker leaves her oratorical powers to Betty Thompson.
12. "Phil" Rhodes leaves his derby and his grin to whoever wants them.
13. Ruth Fullerton leaves her love of books to Mary Mulroy.
14. "Marsh" Barbour leaves his football suit to "Red" Soule.
15. We all give excuses to Miss Hueston.
16. Donald Bennett leaves "that skin you love to touch" to C. Walker Pierce.
17. "Johnie" Hammett leaves his "Chem." technique to Elmer Sisco.
18. "Soup" Campbell leaves his ability to bluff to "Cement" O'Neil.
19. George Langzetell leaves his haircut to John Callahan.
20. Claire Hoyle leaves her coquettishness to Ellen Seavey.
21. James Miller finally consented to leave his love to the girls.
22. George Riley leaves his car to the junk man.
23. Moore-Bennett, Inc., leave their dustpan, brush, vocabulary, and Mr. Bean's fatherly advice to whoever can equal the breakage record established by this concern in Chem. I and II.
24. In conclusion we would like to state that, although it is an annual event for the seniors to leave their dignity to the juniors, this class is going to keep its dignity. We are in hopes that it will keep us from being branded as freshmen next year.

Signed in the presence of The Seniors.

Jokes

Arthur was Port instead of Sherry?
Rachel was Black instead of Brown?
Flossie was Day instead of Knight?
Philip was Paths instead of Rhodes?

Miss Harris—reading from Grammar Book: "Poe's father refused to give him money after he left Westbrook (West Point)."

Buck Harvell: "Miss Halverson, what raw materials go into the production of wheat?"
Dot: "Farmers."

ON WASHINGTON TRIP

Peggy Perkins: "Captain, would you please help me find my stateroom?"

Captain: "Have you forgotten what number it is, madam?"

Peggy: "Yes, but I'll know it if I see it again; there was a lighthouse just outside the window."

Instructor: "That is the third time you've looked on his paper."

Wise Senior: "Yes, he doesn't write very plainly."

Miss Farnham: "Can you prove that the square of the hypotenuse is equal to the sum of the squares of the other two sides of this triangle?"

Callahan: "I don't have to prove it; I admit it."

Holmes: "I wish I could be like a river."

Stoddard: "Like a river. In what way?"

Holmes: "Stay in my bed, and yet follow my course."

Arad the Great: "If you are good, you are happy. What kind of condition is that?"

Bond Perry: "Contrary to Fate."

We wonder:

Where Geneva Kitchen got her smile?
Why Orris Merrill always leaves her hat on.
Where Bill Marshman gets his hair curled.
Why June Clough wishes Hebron was co-educational.
Why "Mac" Lester is always matching nickels.
Why Evelyn Brown makes such frequent trips to U. of M.
Where Lawrence Stoddard got that red and white sweater.
Why Johnnie Roberts likes the girls of the senior class.
Why Dot Hovey goes to Boston so often.
Why Dot Halverson likes Farmington.
Where Margaret Libby got that ring.
Why Philip Thorne likes little girls.
Why Miss Harris is often heard to say "I'm sorry."
Why Arthur Sherry's hair is beginning to curl.
What we will all be doing a year from now.

THE IDEAL SENIOR GIRL

Take:

June Clough's eyes
Florence Knight's teeth
Madeline Blom's complexion
Dot Smart's disposition
Louise Larson's athletic ability
Katherine Wolff's dancing ability
"Bee" Crocker's brains
Orris Merrill's poise
Ray Brown's dimples and Dot Halverson's pep

Then put them all together and you have the Ideal Deering Girl.

And there's the old one about Moses that Freddy tells in his famous philosophy (alias U. S. History) classes; "And the Lord said 'Moses, come forth!' and Moses came fifth so the Lord lost his bet on the race."

THIS MODERN GENERATION

Johnny Roberts: "Will you marry me?"

A Girl: "No, I'm afraid not.

J. R.: "Oh, come on. Be a support."

JUST ANOTHER

Perry: "Do you think you could pass for a tramp?"

Langzettel: "Listen, I'm through taking exams for you!"

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

You get the tickets and I'll pay you later.

Peggy Perkins' Boy-friend, entering a post office: "Any mail for Mike Howe?"

Postmistress being busy, made no reply.

"Any mail for Mike Howe?" repeated the man.

"No, of course not. Who do you think would send mail to your cow?"

Mr. Richard Campbell springs these—He knows of a wagon maker who had been dumb for years, but one day he picked up a hub and spoke.—A blind carpenter who one day reached out for a plane and saw.—A deaf sheep ranchman who went out with his dog and herd.—The noseless fisherman who caught a barrel of herring and smelt.—A forty-ton elephant which inserted his trunk into a grate and flue. Believe him or not.

The Boy: "Didn't you say there was something you liked about me?"

The Girl: "Yes, but you spent it all."

A professor once came to Deering High to talk in an assembly. He took the letters in the word Deering as a guide for his speech, and growing enthusiastic over his subject, preached a full sermon on each letter: D for Dependability, E for Excellence in scholastic achievement, and so on, continuing for over an hour and a half. As we were leaving the assembly I asked James Miller what he thought of the sermon. In reply he said: "All I have to say is, I'm glad we're not at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology."

Mr. Linscott remarked: "Yes, America was free of evils in the good old days."

"Yeah — in the good old days before 1492!"

In U. S. History some rather startling definitions are unearthed. For instance, "A commission is a small body of puzzled men entirely surrounded by gratuitous advice." Also, "A gentleman is one male who apologizes to his lady companion before changing gears in an Austin." And, in case you didn't know, "A historian is a press agent for a dead man."

The new SPRING dance steps have many twists and turns.

Owen Blaisdell: "The United States exported more than 27,000,000 artificial teeth last year."

Frenchie White: "No wonder we are so falsely represented abroad."

The absent-minded music professor: "How many carrots in a peck—er—er, I mean, how many beats in a measure?"

Chaperones at a dance in the Gym, to the syncopating jazz of Nate Gold's orchestra: "Funny, isn't it? Music used to soothe the soul — now it makes the shoulders jerk."

Ruthie's mother won't let her sweetie call on her on Saturday nights, because he always carries away the Sunday paper with him.

Phil Thorne's voice, over the phone: "Are you the lady that washes?"

"No!"

His voice, over the phone: "You dirty thing."

A. Linscott: "It is predicted that snuff will become popular."

F. Hall: "There goes an end to petting parties."

History of the Junior Class

President, ROBERT NIELSON

Vice-President, RUFUS SOULE

Secretary, ELIZABETH WESCOTT

Treasurer, PHILIP CLARK

Executive Committee, ELLEN SEAVEY, KENNETH WITHEE, LESTER O'NEIL

THE Junior Class was well represented in all the activities of the school this year.

The girls' basketball team, which was fairly successful this year was made up principally of Junior girls, the outstanding members being, Captain Elizabeth Wescott, "Pete" Peterson, Mabel Preble, "Betty" Riley, Mabel Sherman and Madeline Doten. All these girls are good players and much is to be expected of them next year.

Field Hockey found many junior girls among its members. They played one inter-scholastic game with the Portland High Juniors, defeating them 4 to 0. They also played a number of inter-class games, winning them all. Mabel Sherman, the captain, was supported by other outstanding members, namely: "Dot" and "Phil" Trott, Mabel Preble, Ruth Provencher, "Betty" Cleveland and Elizabeth Wescott.

The boys' football team came through with a successful season. The brilliant playing of the juniors "Phil" Clark, "Cement" O'Neil, Horace Holmes, "Dick" Towle, "Ken" Withee, Rufus Soule, "Bill" Chapman, Basil Lattie and Erle Down, certainly was a credit to the class.

The boys' basketball team also went through a good season. The juniors were "Phil" Clark, "Charlie" Geer, Rufus Soule, Erle Down, Horace Holmes and Chester Peterson.

On the baseball team we found "Phil" Clark, "Charlie" Geer, Rufus Soule, and Erle Down.

The Junior Class was represented on the debating team by Ogilvie Harrison.

Tennis is a fairly new sport at Deering, but at the first of the year was well supported by the junior class. The junior members were Roberta Wright, Mary Mulroy, Helen Abbott, Anna Peterson, Elizabeth Wescott, from the girls of the class. Lawrence Tripp represented the Junior boys in this activity.

The Juniors were prominent in helping to publish the Purple Line. Francis Benjamin, Maxine Gleason, Virginia Elliott, and Robert Foss are on the editorial staff.

The Red Cross has done excellent work this year, with the help of Eleanor Ross, Phyllis Partelow, and Charles Marble.

The Dramatic Club put on a very interesting play this year with a cast made up principally of Juniors. Harry Simms, Maxine Gleason, Francis Benjamin, Charlie Geer, Betty Thompson, Christine Knight, Doris Maxim, and Robert Foss.

HEAR ye! Hear ye! Make way for ye honorable sophomores! Not so wonderful to be sure, but everyone knows we're in the school. With Kilgore and the Rosenblad twins on the football team, the class of 1933 certainly has raised itself to a position higher than the one we held last year as freshmen.

In hockey, the girls did fairly well. Though they did lose to the Juniors, they tied the Seniors, and then the fates decided the sophomores deserved a victory and the freshmen were defeated.

In track, the boys from the class of 1933 were in there working from the crack of the gun to the tape at the finish.

In the class basketball games, the girls lost to the Juniors and Seniors, and in the final encounter they defeated the poor freshmen. Ten girls made the varsity.

The sophomore boys did the same as the girls in the class basketball games. They lost to the juniors and seniors (many of whom, you understand, were this year's varsity men); but because every sophomore team is expected to beat a freshmen team they came through with a victory in the freshmen game. Kilgore made the varsity.

Several boys had the military instinct; so they joined the cadets.

We have a few who are able to uphold the glory of the sophomore class in something besides athletics. Several went out for debating and, of course, our Richard McCann was selected as an alternate on one of the varsity debating teams. Louise Harris and Edwin Benjamin made the second team.

Taking it all in all, we sophomores aren't so slow. Just watch our smoke next year.

History of the Freshman Class

President, DONALD MILLER

Vice-President, BARBARA BENNETT

Secretary, KENNETH WEIDAW

Treasurer, RICHARD BURKE

Executive Committee, LEONA PERRY, ROBERT TITCOMB, FRANK LESTER

LAST year, when we Freshmen entered Deering, we were very much confused with all of the noise and excitement in the corridors. We were amazed with the way upperclassmen hurried along and attended to their own work. Finally, we became used to this strange place and felt as much at home as in our old schools.

We had heard of the fierceness of some of the teachers and of the long assignments which they gave out. After having them for a few days, we learned that they were not as bad as we had anticipated.

Many of us then went out for extra activities. Music lovers headed for the glee clubs, orchestra and band. In fact, the Boys' Glee Club is wholly made up of Freshmen. Others chose Dramatic, Nature, Art, and Debating Clubs. The Stamp Club is a great favorite with the boys. A number went out for sports, such as field hockey, tennis, cross country and football. This number gradually increased, especially in football, where many boys found rest from studies. A number of Freshmen received numerals in cross country and field hockey.

In October class officers were elected under the supervision of Mr. Linscott.

The big event came a month later — the long-awaited Freshmen Reception. Through this, the mothers and fathers had a chance to meet the teachers.

When the call for basketball and indoor track candidates was sounded, many of us answered it. Several Freshmen were on the first basketball squad. Several even ran in the four cornered meet.

When Osty opened his indoor football and baseball practices many of us responded with vigor. Two of the four pitchers are Freshmen.

We are all looking forward to June, 1934, when we will be graduated with honors, we hope, from Deering.

"Premiere of the D. H. S. Vanities at the opening of the Langzettel Theatre tonight, Bee; want to go?"

"Surely, Don, I'd love to. But what will the critics say about my going with a musician again? They criticized my last drama because the organ played straight through it."

"Never mind 'em. Be ready about 9."

So promptly at nine-thirty Miss Crocker joined her escort and they hopped into a runabout Aircraft and flew off to the Langzettel. They passed a blue-eyed cop who resembled Dorrance, but probably wasn't. Dick Henry, essayist, and Senator Chisholm sailed past, hollering that they were bound for the last showing of Dottie Halverson in the new talkie, co-starred with the popular crooner, Ken Johnstone, once manager of Paul Whiteman's orchestra.

And in her dressing room, modernistically done by Margaret Libby, interior decorator, Mooly-Moo (which you undoubtedly recognize as the stage name of Peggy Perkins) sat gazing romantically through J. Orton, poor dear, who, as a missionary to the savages, was trying to convert her from the debasing profession of actress. Stage manager, Georgie Haskell, nervously repeating Latin phrases, stalked majestically from dressing room to dressing room in the process of ascertaining that all was as it should be.

The theatre was rapidly filling with distinguished personages. A rustle of excitement ran through the third gallery as the following gentlemen, ministers to England and France, respectively, took their seats in the boxes — Stu Thoits and Richard Campbell (pronounced Camel). Soon the ladies, Barbie Rankin and Charle Cloudman, both, alas, business women of the highest hardest calibre, garbed in magnificent evening robes from Mlle. Anita Allen's exclusive Modiste Shoppe, joined their escorts. Mlle. Anita, herself, was there, that evening, under the escort of Philippe Rhodes, the great producer. They made a stunning pair.

The orchestra platform ascended and Marj. Hanscom, Concertmistress, flashed a smile of welcome to the balcony, where Zeze Monson and Jeanne Gault, celebrated founders of the Elite Householders' Establishment, were seated, comfortably chatting with Ex-President Hoover and Mac Lester, business man and professional ski-jumper. Down in the orchestra section Claire Hoyle, reporter for the Hourly with Phil Foster, the foremost Naval Architect on the continent, sociably exchanged commonplaces with a theatre party including Audrey Bond, sculptor's delight as a model, Edith Johnson, reporting for the Universe, Niels Hamstrom, Representative in the House, and the eminent poultryman, Warren Hayden. The latter glared across the aisle at Carl Graves, the flourishing fur farmer, whose foxes were continually wreaking havoc with the great Hayden hens.

In the front row of the balcony the artist, Frederick Larrabee, was sketching the design of the frescoed ceiling on the back of his program, when he was hailed by Kay Leighton, the eminent cartoonist, over in the Loges.

Then the lights started twinkling; and, as the curtain slowly opened, were gradually extinguished in an ingenious manner which made their iridescence glow in a final opal blaze. No doubt this effect was cleverly contrived by the stage electrician, Gardiner Maxcy.

The opening scene was a harmony of colors, artfully blended by the scenic manager, Mary Grendell. Fifty or so chorus girls, among whom were Clovis Hawkes, Dot Hennigar, Helen Jacobsen and Louise Larsen, came forth dressed in the quaint style of 1931, singing "An Old-Fashioned Girl," introducing Ruth Fullerton, operatic contralto, who proved a great success.

The next was a comedy skit between Arthur Sherry and Izzie Hodgkins. (Hazel Hanson, I discovered later, was Mistress of Costumes, so she was still taking care of Isabel). Then came the entire ensemble, introducing Johnny Roberts, the most popular single man on the American continent (they say he'd rejected more than fifteen proposals, too) who was an excellent "Zanzo" dancer. For his partner he had Ruthie Shurtleff, the most graceful athlete ever introduced to the Musical Comedy Stage.

After that a charming colorful finale number by the ensemble, singing the entrancing new song called "Lover, Love Your Lonesome Loving Lover," completed a thoroughly delightful evening, and the theatre was gradually emptied of its patrons.

Johnny K. R. and Ruthie Shurtleff immediately skittered off to the Sportrix Nite Club. As they entered, Phil Thorne, the sponsor, owner, Master of Ceremonies, and what have you? was announcing the scores and the recent carnival results through the courtesy of the "Amethyst Universal Newspress."

The Champions were as follows: Baseball, Jimmy Hamilton — Football, Laurence Stoddard — Tennis, Bobbie Smith — Bowling, Johnny Hammet — Ice hockey, Ralph Hanson — Field hockey, Teddie Hakins — Swimming, Midge Smart, Barb Foster, Alvena Knight — Miniature Golf, Normie Hjort — Pool, Henry Hanson — Track, Fulton Wilcox — Checkers, Bob Harget, etc., etc.

Connie Chick, the Nite Club organist, played some delightful old melodies which made one think of the dear old days of Nate Gold's "It's Kinda Like That."

Frenchie White, Numerologist, and the charming widow from Chilawgone decided that they needed the refreshment of the night air and left by the next touring dirigible which sailed over the roof garden. They flew over Greater New York and Coney Island and up along the waterfront to New England — dismounting in their hydro-chutes onto the calm surface of cool, moonlit Sebago. Over the water they heard familiar voices, among them the strident tones of the old televisionistic radio announcer, Lawrence Dyer. Judging that it was a reunion gathering of Deeringites at Dot Marr's camp, they propelled themselves toward the rustic cottage on the shore, to be greeted by a storm of "Hi-lows" from a whole house party of them. Chris Eliot and Jimmie Miller, the Acrobatic aquaplanists were there, and the important banker, Dot Smart; Orris Merrill and Maurice Goddard, rival candidates for the Presidency of 1956, and the secretarial hostess Dot Marr. After a couple drinks of Igloo Special, Pale Dry, they all went out to drag the astronomer, Elinor Tebbits and the Yale Professor, Don Bennet away from the telescope and into the party. Then Ken Withee consented to croon Ed Stetson's latest song hit "Vot I Be I Owe to Thee." Then they turned on the radivision again to see a duet sung by Bill Sullivan and Eleanor Blake, called "In the Garden, Oh My Darling." Suddenly they heard a great commotion and looking out, saw Charles Marble, who insisted upon their all piling in for a hydroplane-ride down Sebago and through the Channel to Casco Bay, to the Yacht-warming of J. Porter Hennings' new model, "My Deer." As they approached the yacht, which was alive with festive red lights, they could hear across the echoing water, sweet melancolic strains of "I'd Die for Dalin' Dottie" as harmonized by the popular blues singers, Alice Sisco and Harold Woodbury. Then we heard Howie Milliken the Master of Ceremonies, announcing "Ladies and Gentlemen and Democrats of the Radiovision Audience. Through the courtesy of the Wm. E. Wing Rank Co., Inc., you will now see and hear Louise Payson as she renders the ever beloved Goblet Song, as made popular so many years ago by Zudy Dallee, from the recording stage of the M Z & broadcasting station, Prague, Czechoslovakia.

And now it's a puzzle how to end this. Would you like to be carried twenty or thirty more years into the future? Or fifty? Then your ashes'll all be preserved in little green glass bottles, tied with Purple and White ribbons, and you'll be labeled. No, every story's supposed to make a complete circle, so I'll bring you back to 1931 and let you complete the cycle up to 1951 yourself, 'cause anyway, you're probably not quite satisfied with what I've made you. You'll all be Mussolinis or Clara Bows, so here's looking at you!

IN 1921, the National Association of Secondary School principals decided that there should be some award for those who achieved distinction in the qualities for which the school is organized. Up to that time, athletic ability received too much recognition by the school. Thus it was decided that fifteen per cent of the upper third of the senior class should be chosen by a committee of the faculty who should judge the candidates for qualities of leadership, service and character as well as scholarship.

Our Deering has the distinction of being the first chapter in Maine and of having its principal, Mr. Wing, a member of the National Committee.

This membership is an honor toward which every Deering student should strive; it means enrollment in an organization which, although only ten years old, has 1,100 chapters and 65,000 members; and, best of all, wearing the society emblem classifies the wearer as does the Phi Beta Kappa the college grad.

ACTIVITIES

1930 - - Football

WITH Coach Ostergren at the helm, the Deering football team completed the most successful season in many years. With a well-developed forward passing attack and the "Notre Dame" style of offence, the team proved that it was all in the knowing how, and ran through a tough schedule, losing only one game, and beating Portland twice, and tying for the Conference Championship.

DEERING 14, WINSLOW 0

The team couldn't seem to click very well this first game, perhaps due to inexperience. They looked good at times, and at others not so good. The Winslow team was game to the end, and almost scored a touchdown near the end of the game.

DEERING 7, PORTLAND 0

Deering upset the dope bucket by outplaying Portland in their annual first game. Holding the strong Portland eleven scoreless the first half, Deering came back the second half with an almost flawless passing attack. The score came by a perfect play, a forward lateral pass, which consisted of a forward pass from Milliken to Roberts, who then tossed the ball laterally to Clark, and this mighty atom sidestepped one tackle and dragged another across the line. Kilgore's punting was one of the outstanding features.

DEERING 6, WATERVILLE 7

The Deering line cracked all to pieces in this game, although Deering should have had another touchdown. O'Neil ran about 53 yards to a touchdown only to be called back because the official said he stepped offside on the run. "Touchy" Gaul was outstanding for Waterville, while Clark and Kilgore were good on defense for Deering.

Portland-Deering Game — Pass from Milliken to Roberts and then from Roberts to Clark Clark Went Through for a Touchdown

DEERING 6, BIDDEFORD 0

This was a hard fought game, which marked the first time that Deering had won from Biddeford. Deering won this game without the aid of their famed forward passing attack. O'Neil, Estes, and Clark were outstanding for Deering, while Murphy led the other team.

DEERING 12, EDWARD LITTLE 6

Another hard fought victory which tasted sweet to Deering. This game was played on a windy day. O'Neil and Clark shone, and Kilgore's punting again saved the day.

DEERING 12, SOUTH PORTLAND 12

This game was a heart-breaker for Deering. With the game practically over and Deering in the lead 12 to 0, two costly fumbles resulted in a tie game. Deering seemed to be able to gain at will with their new split formation. Clark and Kilgore were the Deering stars, while Curran and Odencrantz starred for South Portland.

DEERING 27, WESTBROOK 0

The Deering offense clicked consistently this game and ran roughshod over a fighting Westbrook team on Armistice morning. The Deering line shone while the backfield functioned to perfection. Clark, especially, made several long runs to touchdowns.

DEERING 21, THORNTON 0

A fighting Thornton eleven held Deering to three touchdowns all of which were scored in the second period. The line play was ragged. O'Neil and Clark made long runs for the touchdowns.

DEERING 6, PORTLAND 0

Another victory over Portland before a record crowd on Thanksgiving morning made the turkey dinners taste good to Deeringites. Deering completed six out of eight forward passes, one of which went for a touchdown. The elusive Clark received this pass, and sidestepped the last tackler to cross the goal line unmolested. The outstanding feature of the game was the long run by Elowitch of Portland, which was brought to a sudden close by Clark, who had started ten yards of sprinting. The whole team played well.

We can safely say that this season is the best Deering ever had, and with eleven veterans returning next year, we are satisfied that Coach Ostergren will have a championship team next year, because he certainly knows his football.

Cross - Country

Buck Harvell's Cross-Country team last fall was the second fastest team Deering ever had. Five of this team are underclassmen; accordingly there is a fine nucleus for next year's team. In the Kents Hill race, Virgil Bond, a Sophomore, led the Deering pack home in exceptionally fast time. With Gorham Normal, Blaisdell, one of the co-captains, made a brilliant sprint and almost caught his man. At Orono, in the State meet, Wormell, a Freshman led the team, and Cook, another Freshman, came in fifth for Deering. The team made a fine showing against Hebron, Kents Hill, and Gorham Normal, making the meets close.

The men winning Varsity letters are: Bond, Blaisdell, Cook, Aaskov, Rose, Jessen, Wormell, and Graves.

Boys' Basketball

DEERING 24, ALUMNI 16

With only one veteran, the basketball team started the season well by defeating a strong Alumni team. The team showed a strong defense and a fairly good offense.

DEERING 15, PORTLAND 18

Deering had difficulty in finding the basket on the small Portland floor and lost a slow game to their old rivals; they intend to avenge it on their own floor.

DEERING 27, BIDDEFORD 18

In a rough game, Deering triumphed over Biddeford in the final period. Stoddard and Clark starred for Deering.

DEERING 31, WESTBROOK 30

The most exciting game of the year was played in the Westbrook gym, with Deering nosing out Westbrook by one point in an overtime period. The score was tied at the half, and at the end of the game. Again Stoddard and Clark led the attack for Deering.

DEERING 21, SOUTH PORTLAND 37

The Deering team was way off form in this game perhaps due to the large crowd. They were simply outclassed by the South Portland five.

DEERING 24, BIDDEFORD 14

In another bruising game, Deering defeated Biddeford in a decisive fashion. There were numerous fouls called and the playing was ragged at times. Woodbury was outstanding for Deering.

DEERING 34, THORNTON 25

Deering was behind at the half, but came back like a whirlwind to score 27 points the last half and a win. Woodbury and Stoddard were the big stars of the game.

DEERING 33, THORNTON 17

There was never any doubt as to the outcome of this game. Woodbury and Stoddard again led the Deering attack. Deering ran up the score with a customary second half attack.

DEERING 36, WESTBROOK 29

This was another exciting game with Westbrook. The first half ended with Westbrook 8 points ahead, but with Stoddard and Woodbury popping them from all angles, Deering came back the second half to score 28 points to Westbrook's 12.

DEERING 26, SOUTH PORTLAND 36

Due to poor foul shooting the Deering five lost another decision to the Capers. If Deering had made half of their free throws good, the score would have been much closer, as the teams were practically even on floor goals. Woodbury, Clark, and Geer played well for Deering.

DEERING 35, PORTLAND 16

Deering revenged the earlier defeat in the season, by swamping Portland 36-16 in their best game of the year. The whole team played superbly, with Woodbury, Roberts, and Stoddard leading the scoring. For about the first game in the year, the Deering team started scoring from the first starting whistle.

This year marks the second time since Freddie Hall came to Deering to coach, that Deering has gone to the Bates tournament; next year, with a nucleus of three veterans we hope that the team will go right through to the finals.

Girls' Basketball

AT THE beginning of the season, we had only one letter girl, our captain Elizabeth Wescott. With this as a start, Miss McKechnie and the large squad of girls practiced long and hard to get a fighting team together.

This year before the season was officially opened, a demonstration of rules was given by South Portland, Portland, Freeport, and Deering, on the Deering floor. Referee Mahan showed all the technical and personal errors and their penalties and demonstrated the new rules. Afterward, a general discussion followed in which the on-lookers and coaches asked questions.

The first game of the season was with the alumnæ, all former stars. Our team was victorious having a final score of 25 against 20 for the alumnæ.

The next week we played Westbrook. Here we were victorious again overcoming our rivals 25-7. This certainly seemed encouraging to the team and gave them more "fighting spirit."

The Y. W. C. A. team, the next week, overcame our team by a small margin, but what a difference those six points meant. Final score 26-20.

Our greatest rival, South Portland, came to visit us the following Saturday. In this game, Wescott was the outstanding player for Deering. This was the first real battle of the year and unfortunately we were beaten 29-18.

Our next opponent was the Y. W. C. A. This time Deering took revenge in vanquishing them 31-17.

We started February by playing another old rival, Portland. This was a battle to the finish. Portland's team was all letter girls and although we put up a hard fight they beat us by 23-14.

The next week we went to Augusta to play Cony. Here again Wescott, in the forward territory, and Reilly and Larson as guards put up a good fight. Due to their efforts we beat the Cony team 27-19.

Again Deering overcame Westbrook. Betty Reilly, our new guard, and Louise Larson starred in this game and brought us out ahead 28-19.

Another hard-fought contest with South Portland. This time at South Portland. Here our star guards played a wonderful game. This game was very close until the last quarter. In spite of the fact that our girls were playing exceptionally well, the South Portland team beat us 13-9.

The Augusta girls came to Deering this time. This was quite a walk-away for the Deering squad. Mabel Sherman played a fine game and helped greatly in bringing our team to a victory of 39-14.

The last game of the season was with Portland, and what a game! The first quarter was a scene of fast action. At the end of this period, the score was 5-4 Portland's favor. They kept the lead throughout the game. Unfortunately, Reilly was taken out because of fouls, but she played a fine game. Although Portland was victorious 27-13, we fought to the finish.

Although this was not as successful a season as the past two years have been, with all the fine material, next year we surely will be able to shine once more!

Besides Captain Elizabeth Wescott, 15 girls earned their "D": Jackson, Moynihan, Reilly, Preble, Peterson, Larson, Hodgkins, Blake, Goodrich, MacGovern, Lincoln, Marr, Talbot, and Upham.

Indoor Track

DEERING 62, PORTLAND 88

Deering lost the first meet of the track season to Portland. The victory was not won until the long distance races were finished, as the two teams were fairly close at the close of the floor events. The Junior division was especially strong.

DEERING 56, SOUTH PORTLAND 94

With three men missing from the line-up, Deering lost to South Portland at the Caper Gym. Gardiner Maxcy broke a meet record in the 250 yard dash.

DEERING 94, THORNTON 56

On her own track, Deering defeated Thornton decisively. The outstanding performer was Captain White who set a new gym record in the 125 yard dash, won the junior dash, in the 20 yard distance, and ran on the relay team. Heald set a record in the new event, the senior 600 yard run and Blaisdell ran a nice mile.

DEERING 5 5/6, BOWDOIN FROSH 80 1/6

Running up against one of the strongest freshmen teams that ever ran for Bowdoin, Deering was completely outclassed. Two former Deering runners, Charlie Allen, and Neil Skillings were instrumental in Deering's defeat. Murphy, Stevens, and Leonard ran good races for Deering.

FOUR CORNERED MEET

First, PORTLAND 67 1/3Third, DEERING 35 1/3Second, SOUTH PORTLAND 52 1/3Fourth, THORNTON 7

Deering gave a good account of herself in this meet and if she had been a little stronger in other divisions besides the Junior, she might have won. Captain White was one of the individual stars of the meet, winning the 40 yard and 125 yard dashes and running on a winning relay team.

Field Hockey

IN THE fall of 1930, we had the most active field hockey teams that we have had since this sport started three years ago at Deering. No regular team was chosen, but class teams were formed and class games were played, as well as class games with Portland.

The first class game between the Juniors and Sophomores was played October 21. The Juniors were victorious by a 3-2 score.

The second game, on that day, was between the Seniors and Freshmen. The Seniors showed the greater experience by defeating the Freshmen 12-0.

The Junior-Freshmen game added another victory to the Junior team 6-1.

The seniors, although expected to take the honors from the Sophomores easily, were greatly surprised when the final score 2-2 proved the underclassmen their equal.

The Freshman-Sophomore game was a close game 4-2 in favor of the Sophomores.

The final game was between the Juniors and Seniors. This was one misfortune the Seniors will always try to overlook. The Juniors were a bit too strong for the Senior team and gained the class championship 2-0. This surely took some of the dignity from some of the all-powerful Seniors!

In the game between the Portland Juniors and the Deering Juniors, Elizabeth Wescott made 3 of the 4 goals and Mabel Preble made the other. This was a game in our favor 4-0.

The Portland Seniors beat our team by 1 point. This game was the most exciting of all the outside games played. The score was tied until the very last minute, when Portland made a goal giving them the game 3-2.

The Deering Freshmen team was successful in its game with Portland. The final score was 7-0.

The Portland Sophomores beat our Sophomores 6-0 — another uneven match.

The hockey season was a very interesting one and by next year we hope to have a picked team to play many other schools.

THE year 1930-1931 has been truly successful for the Deering High Debating Association. This year we have had a new coach, Miss Ruth Williams, formerly of the Lancaster Academy faculty. With her efficient help and by means of a campaign carried on by the older members, the club gained many new recruits among the underclassmen. The club membership has thus reached a total of about thirty-five, which is the largest it has been for several years.

In the late fall an unusually fine Cabaret was given which helped the club financially. The program, which was an especially good one, consisted of dancing, a playlet, and supper served in a real cabaret manner.

Because of the proximity of the Bates Debating League, the whole club entered enthusiastically into a study of debating, assisted by our new coach. The varsity teams of last year gave the first debate in order to show debating procedure to the new members. The speakers were Margaret Perkins, Bond Perry, Donald Allton, and Dorothea Smart. After that, many practice debates were held and a goodly number of promising debaters were heard, who will no doubt shine for Deering within the next few years.

However, all our meetings have not consisted of debates. For entertainment we have had mock trials, intricate games, skits, plays, and many other clever features.

We feel that the Debating Club has had one of its finest years and, because of the great show of interest thus far, we hope that next year will be even more successful.

Purple Line Staff

"Purple Line"

AT THE beginning of the fall term, The Purple Line started on a very ambitious schedule. Deering and Lincoln Junior High were canvassed for subscriptions. The paper was to be published every week of five school-days. This program was strictly adhered to as long as the funds lasted. But publishing a weekly is an expensive undertaking for a rather inexperienced staff. Consequently, publication less frequently was necessary and during the latter part of the year, the school had one issue in every three weeks. The staff has tried to make the paper include all school activities, featuring what interested the majority of students most.

The Purple Line has a very promising group of underclassmen who will take charge next year. With this year's experience, they should be able to publish the paper at regular intervals and thus make The Purple Line one of the most successful high school papers in Maine.

The complete staff is as follows: editor-in-chief, Elizabeth Lincoln; Managing editor, George Langzettel; assistant editors, Virginia Elliott; Francis Benjamin; athletic editor, Bond Perry; society editor, Margaret Perkins; club editors, Robert Foss, Blanche McCrillis; exchange editor, Philena Chase; alumni editor, Barbara Rankin; senior editor, Charlotte Cloudman; junior editor, Maxine Gleason; sophomore editor, Louise Harris; freshman editor, Donald Miller; proofreader, Richard Campbell; assistant managing editor, Frederick Allen; advertising manager, Marchall Barbour; assistant advertising manager, Albert Perry; circulation manager, Philip Rhodes; photographer, Gardiner Maxcy.

The Student Service Club

THE Student Service Club is an organization made up of one member from each home room. This club has been in existence thirteen years. About 40 members belonged to it this year.

The purpose of the organization is to make known the wishes of the students to the principal, and for the principal to give out information to the students in the school in this manner. Our principal, Mr. Wing, acts as chairman at the meetings held every Tuesday morning. The duties of the club members are: to collect attendance slips, to act as ushers, and to act as guides for new pupils and visitors. The motto of the club is, "To serve."

The Junior Red Cross Council

President, FRANCES HAYDEN

Vice-President, FRANCIS GRIFFITH

Secretary, WILMA PERKINS

Treasurer, RAYMOND JENKINS

THIS year the Junior Red Cross of Deering has been, perhaps, a little more active than formerly, due to more careful organization. Miss Alice Hall, our faculty adviser, has helped us immensely, and has kept us working with new plans and projects throughout the year. The Council has met every two weeks to discuss our work; then its members, in turn, have communicated the news to the students of their respective home rooms.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, baskets of food and essentials were packed and delivered to needy families, along with dainty favors and cards made in the Art department.

Programs have been planned and given several times this year for the enjoyment, amusement, and benefit of the inmates of public institutions near by. The experience and pleasure gained, we believe, has been decidedly worthwhile to all participating.

At the plays which have been given in the auditorium, we have obtained permission to sell candy which has been received enthusiastically, since it is home-made candy, solicited from the home rooms by representatives.

Many girls and boys have thoroughly enjoyed the social afternoons of bridge and other card games which we have held in the Suite. This is only one of our methods of earning money in a profitable way.

Altogether, the Junior Red Cross Council is an excellent organization: if you want proof of it, just ask someone in this group who realizes the spirit and sees all the good that is accomplished.

The Radio Club

THE present Radio Club of Deering High School was formed in the spring of 1931 with Mr. Frank O. Stack as the faculty adviser. The club holds its weekly meetings in Room 129 at 1:15 o'clock on Mondays. The club also meets some Friday afternoons in the Radio Room.

Our President, Richard Campbell, has brought his short wave set up to school to try out a number of times. He has also given some very interesting talks on short wave reception.

Most of the club programs have been devoted to the study of short waves and the construction of short wave receiving sets. Some of the distant stations the club has received are: Holland, France, England, Italy, and Germany.

The officers of the club are as follows:

President, RICHARD CAMPBELL

Vice-President, EDITH STANLEY

Secretary, R. ELEANOR ROSS

Treasurer, ALBERT MOORE

Entertainment Committee, ROBERT FOSS, RUTH RICH, RICHARD WINSLOW

Baseball

DEERING's baseball outlook for 1931 appears to be one of the best in years. Although only a few games will have been played before the publication of this book, the team, with Fred Ostergren as coach, seems well fortified with veterans and new prospects to win many games during the season. Among the veterans are: Freddie Wilson, hard-hitting and aggressive catcher; "Phil" Clark one of the best outfielders in the Telegram league for the year; Harold Woodbury another very capable outfielder; Charlie Geer playing his third year at shortstop; Henry Hanson who has been converted from an outfielder to a third baseman; and "Howie" Milliken who holds down the second base position. Deering has no veteran pitchers, but has some very fine looking prospects in Rufus Soule, Ken Weidaw, Phil Skillin, Ken Johnstone, and Jimmie Hamilton. Erle Down is the leading candidate for first base and Mervin Kilgore is expected to see much action at second base. Other prospects for the team are Edward Dearborn and James Down catchers, Herman Williams, Howard Forrestall, Robert Reid, and Douglas Steele outfielders.

The "D" Club

President, HAROLD M. WOODBURY

Vice-President, ELIZABETH WESCOTT

Treasurer, PHILIP CLARK

Secretary, LEON A. CARPENTER

THE "D" Club is a club composed of those students of the school who have won a letter in some outside activity connected with the school. This club is the authority on all questions concerning sports and decides what the requirements for winning a letter in these sports shall be. The "D" Club decides what letters shall be given and for what they shall be given. The officers of the club are members who are elected at one of the last meetings of the year to serve during the next year.

The purpose of the Club is to promote interest in the activities of the school and also to promote these activities.

The "D" Club furnished and planted several hundred trees on the athletic field. Money was also given to the school to buy a score board when a suitable device could be found. During the past football season, the "D" Club operated the refreshment stand on the athletic field. The Club gave two dances during the year; one the annual Thanksgiving Dance and a public dance in the spring. The annual Thanksgiving Dance was made a reception for our new football coach, Fred V. Ostergren.

It has been the custom in past years to award the letters at regular letter assemblies but this practice has been discontinued with the exception of the Baseball and Outdoor Track letters. The letters are now awarded at the annual "D" Club banquet which is held early in the spring. The Outdoor Track letters are awarded at an assembly during the last of the year.

Deering Dramatic Club

President, JOHN ROBERTS

Vice-President, MADELINE DOTEN

Secretary, DOROTHY MARR

Treasurer, RICHARD CAMPBELL

Faculty Advisers, MISS HUESTON, MISS HAMBLIN

THE Deering Dramatic Club, the largest extra-curricula organization in the school, has this year played an increasingly important and prominent part in the activities of Deering. Organized four years ago with only fifty students enrolled, it has sponsored plays and stimulated interest in its work until today it has over 200 members. The aim of the club is to teach its members the fundamentals of amateur theatricals and to interest the pupils in play acting and producing. It meets every second Wednesday at one o'clock in the auditorium when a one-act play is presented. In these plays a high standard of acting is maintained. The only requirement for membership is that each member must be in one play a year. In this way every one is given an opportunity to display his talents and to obtain some dramatic training.

At Christmas time an open meeting was held when all the alumni were especially invited to attend. The one-act play selected for presentation was "The Singapore Spider," a weird mysterious play dealing with the life and murder of an old sea captain. Harry Simms as Jason Harriew gave an exceptionally fine performance. He was ably supported by the fine work of Maxine Gleason, Virginia Eliot, William Henry, and Frederick Allen.

The annual play, a three-act farce "Not So Bad" was presented for the public in November. The play consists of the trials of a house party of young people when the servants suddenly leave the morning after the guests arrive. Although they are loath to do so, the young people all agree to do part of the work and in the end make the affair a big success. When the servants finally return four days later, it is a renovated group that greets them.

Geology Club Officers

Geology Club

AN EARLY start in the school season was enjoyed by the Geology Club. It was organized September 30, 1930. The officers elected for this year were: president, Jack Moses; vice-president, Edward White; secretary, Phoebe M. Robinson; treasurer, Owen Blaisdell. There are twenty-nine members in all who joined. Twenty-seven joined at the first regular meeting and two joined at a later meeting.

The meetings are held on Tuesday nights at irregular times, whenever the weather is permittable for the study of astronomy which is one of the main purposes for the Club, or whenever important matters arise which are of interest to the members.

The chance to observe the moon and other planets through the telescope has been of great interest to the members. We are also to learn the names of various constellations.

Interesting talks and lantern slides on things of geological interest are other features enjoyed at the meetings.

At the beginning of the Christmas vacation season December 19th the Club sponsored a dance. Many interesting things for the benefit of the Club are purchased with the proceeds.

The members have all enjoyed these meetings. The proof of this is our good attendance. As a class we have also greatly enjoyed the many required field trips.

Mr. Emmons has been our leader and friend.

Art Club Officers

Art Club

President, CHRISTINE WILEY

Vice-President, FRANCES CRESSEY

Treasurer, FREDERICK LARRABEE

Secretary, MARY GRENDALL

REGULAR meetings of the Art Club have been held every Wednesday morning at eight-twenty, and special study has been made of modern illustrators and their work.

Besides the regular meetings, various activities have been carried on. In October a group went to Grants for a sketching party and supper. A marionette show was presented at the Public Library in November, before the Rotary Club in December, and at the Pathfinder's February meeting. On February fourteenth the annual Art Club dance was held.

The assembly given by the Art Club this year was a "Modern Mother Goose Parade," with very modernistic scenery and costumes. Before the curtains opened on each playlet, the rhyme was read, while, on either side of the stage, Barbara Smith and William Field sketched their own ideas of the rhyme.

Two exhibitions have been attended, one at the Art Museum and one at the Hayloft.

The Art Club was fortunate to have two special speakers, Mr. Roger Deering, whose subject was, "Commercial Art," and Mr. Linwood Easton who spoke on "Etching."

This year has been an interesting one and we are grateful to Miss Seabury for her interest and enthusiasm, which have contributed so much to its success.

Stamp Club

President, PHILIP RHODES

Vice-President, EDWARD BENJAMIN

Secretary-Treasurer, DORRANCE COLEMAN

THE Philatelic Association in Deering this year completed its fourth season. Four years ago it was organized by a group of Freshmen. Today the Club has only two of these members left, Treasurer, Dorrance Coleman, and President, Phil Rhodes.

This year the club met every Thursday morning from 8:20 until 8:40. The first meeting of the month was devoted to business. The second and fourth were devoted to general trading and the third was a program meeting.

No dance was given this year but the annual exhibition was held in May. The Association does not measure its success by the amount of money in the treasury, but by the number of members it attracts. Thus, this year has been the best, with 24 members attending regularly under Mr. Petersen's guidance. The seniors hope, that in the four years they headed it, they have made a foundation for a club which will never cease growing.

The Orchestra

THE Deering High School Orchestra, under the direction of its leader, Miss Emily E. Chase, is one of the best known organizations at Deering. During the school year this orchestra has many engagements, such as assisting at a number of the social activities of the school, including the Freshman Reception, the Dramatic Club Play, the Spear Prize Speaking Contest, the debates, Graduation, and also at many of our assemblies. It also presents annually an exceptionally well-rendered concert, which is one of the most important events on its schedule. Besides assisting at school activities, the orchestra has many outside engagements.

There are a number of very talented musicians in this organization, and it is only with their help and co-operation that it has been able to carry on its work as an orchestra.

This orchestra is one of the largest of its kind in the State, there being sixty-four members in it.

The membership of the orchestra is as follows: Violins — Edna Goodrich (concert leader), Marjorie Hanscomb, Frances Cressey, Beryl Kennedy, Harriett Clement, Doris Maxim, Lydia Farrar, Lillian Winn, Alice Dupee, Edward Needham, Roger Brackett, Lucille Stone, Cecilia Blake, William Baron, Virginia Hagen, Mildred Stevens, Mary Jenks, Lelia Libby, Frederic Francis, Eleanor Fitch, Natalie Walker, Helen McCrum, Donald Barbour, William Henry, Edward Pierce, Marjorie Stevens; Violoncellos — Elizabeth Owens, Mary Jane Ripley, Barbara Todd, Marguerite Stone, Frances Jones; Viola — Mary Olive Thompson; Bass — Marjorie Hodgkins; Bells — Barbara Corbett; Flutes — Norman Kemp, Elwood Thurlow, George Libby; Clarinets — Roger Calderwood, Eileen Asher, Donald Haskell, Rutledge Morton, Albert Moore, Elmer Sisco; Saxophones — Ruth Hooper, Ada Clifford, Madeline Corson, Eugene Verge; Trumpets — Irving Landean, Frank Farwell, Paul Morrill, Ralph Libby; Trombones — Norma Wiggin, Carl Randall; Oboe — Clinton Graffam, Jr.; Tuba — Philip Derrah; Drums — Herman Williams, Arthur Strout, Willis Sawyer; French Horns — Ogilvie Harrison, Norman McKenney; Piano — Raymond Lord, Nedra Blake; Librarians — Dorothy Leighton, Phyllis Pettingill.

The Deering High School Band

THE Deering High School Band under the expert direction of Mr. Frank Rigby, well-known Portland instructor, and Mr. Frank Stack, a popular member of our faculty, enjoyed a most successful season.

It played at the home football, and basketball games, and for the second year furnished music for the Four-Cornered Track Meet at the Exposition Building.

The band also played at the Boothby Home, the Senior Class Play, the Banquet that the Bowdoin Club of Portland gives annually to prospective Bowdoin students, the lecture that Representative Beedy gave about the Samoan Islands, for the Pathfinders Club, and at various assemblies. On February 6, the band gave its first concert and dance at this school.

At present, the boys are working hard in preparation for the Cadets' Ball and for the Band Contest in May.

The new uniforms, consisting of white flannel trousers and purple blazers, were purchased this year.

REAR: Philip Derrah, James Winton, Edgar Jones, Alfred Halverson, Maurice Cushman, Howard Fore-stall, Irving Laudeau, Howard Milliken, Ralph Libby, Frank Farwell, Franklin Potter, Orison Gailey, Frederick Jensen, Wallace Card, Roger Peterson.

MIDDLE: Merle Leland, Donald Haskell, Rutledge Morton, Dexter McCausland, Edmund Walker, Albert Moore, Clinton Graffam, Herman Williams, Frank O. Stack, director, Merrill Stephens, Norman Verge, Carl Randall, Fred Wade, Norman McKenney, William Lawrence.

FRONT: Roger Calderwood, Eugene Verge, Elmer Sisco, Norman Kemp, John Callahan, John Ward, Howard Churchill, Arthur Shackley, Arthur Strout, John Hammett, mgr., not in picture.

The Glee Club

FOR the past four years, the Glee Club has been one of the most outstanding activities in Deering. This club, which was federated with the Maine Federation of Music Clubs, has rendered valuable services to both school and community. The members have assisted on the programs at the Orchestra Concerts, the Christmas Municipal Organ Concerts, the Pathfinder's Meetings, and at several church services, receiving favorable comments at each performance.

In order that voice culture might be studied more fully, the club divided in 1929 into separate clubs, the Boys' Club uniting with the Girls' Club in preparing special programs. The music was carefully selected to suit the particular types of young men's and women's voices.

To accommodate those students who had no sixth period study, a rehearsal was held at one o'clock on Mondays and Fridays. Myra Thomas, who was elected President in 1930, was reelected in 1931, with Maud Horner as Vice-President, Marjorie Hanscom as Secretary, and Ruth Fullerton as Treasurer. In the one o'clock club, Louise Larsen was elected President for 1931, Florence Webb, Secretary, and Ruby Lunt, Treasurer.

This year, the Glee Club's most spectacular performance was the presentation of the Christmas pageant, "The Birth of Christ." The club is greatly indebted to the Dramatic Club for assistance in this and other presentations.

The Glee Club has time for play as well as work. An annual picnic is held each spring; also various social events during the school term. Besides receiving a profitable musical education and much pleasure, a one-point credit is earned toward graduation.

This club would not have succeeded as it has, had it not been for the careful instruction and direction of Miss Emily Chase. Having studied voice culture under prominent instructors, Miss Chase has passed on the knowledge which she received to the club members.

The Glee Club's aim is to stimulate the love and joy to be derived in singing beautiful music. We try to develop the group rather than the individual. This is our aim: to be a helpful unit in both school and community.

Girl's Harmonica Club

President, HELEN PIERCE

Vice-President, MARGARET FLINT

Secretary, ELIZABETH WHITE

Treasurer, JUNE WILBUR

THIS is one of Deering's newest organizations, being only two years old. This year it has held its regular meetings in room 206 at one o'clock every Wednesday. Its regular attendance has been small; but, under Hazel Winslow's leadership, the meetings have proved very interesting and the girls are all becoming experienced harmonica players of songs old and new, both popular and semi-classical.

Senior Class Play Cast

Senior Class Play

CLAD in satins and white wigs the class of '31 forsook tradition and gayly presented Sheridan's comedy "The Rivals" with an enthusiasm and finish rarely seen in an amateur performance. An unusually well-balanced cast dashed through scene after scene of excellent comedy. The play, first acted at the Covent-Garden Theatre in 1775, has never lost its ability to hold even the most sophisticated of modern audiences.

The plot deals with the trials of Captain Jack Absolute to win the hand of the romantic and rather silly, though wholly charming, Lydia Languish, who is guarded by her aunt, Mrs. Malaprop, a regular she-dragon. Jack, hoping to more easily win Lydia's hand, poses as a poor Ensign named Beverley. His father and Mrs. Malaprop, not considering it necessary to consult the young people, have arranged a marriage between them. And soon Jack finds himself in a most embarrassing place, he is a rival to himself. Not daring to tell Lydia of his deceit, Jack tries every known subterfuge only to be found out, and, of course, eventually forgiven.

It will be a long time before Bee Crocker's characterization of Mrs. Malaprop is forgotten. Her interpretation of an exacting part was very well done, and "the allegories on the banks of the Nile" created a sensation. Bond Perry, as Sir Anthony, excited the admiration of the audience by possessing a buzz-saw voice, Indian rubber vocal cords, and excellent interpretation. Donald Allton's excellent characterization of Bob Acres was almost eclipsed by his appearing with his hair done in curl papers and by his light pink satin trousers. Phil Rhodes and Florence Knight convulsed the cast if not the audience by their ardent love scene in the last act. Johnny offered advice frequently and freely, it was not taken, Dorrance Coleman's rendition of David, the idiot, was beautifully done. (We dare not say realistically for fear Dorrance will be misjudged.) Claire Hoyle, as a 1775 flapper, was charming, and no one blamed the sophisticated Fag, played by Philip Thorne, for succumbing to her wiles. Gardiner Maxcy attired, much to his disgust, in pale blue velvet and pink satin, made a charming and delightful Irish baronet. Captain Jack, the gallant and dashing hero, who was no other than our own Johnny Roberts, nearly stopped the show with his love scenes. All the feminine hearts did flutter so; one long drawn sigh did wreck havoc. Peggy Perkins, as Lydia, was as sweet and winsome as the part demanded, and not only lived up to but surpassed the tradition of Deering's leading ladies.

The complete cast was as follows: Bond Perry, John Roberts, Philip Rhodes, Donald Allton, Gardiner Maxcy, Philip Thorne, Dorrance Coleman, Richard Henry, Stuart Thoits, Bertha Crocker, Margaret Perkins, Florence Knight, Claire Hoyle, and Wilma Perkins.

Washington Club Officers

The Washington Trip

THE annual pilgrimage to the Nation's Capitol began this year on April 24, and turned out to be a gala event for many of us. Our escorts were Mr. Emmons, the conductor, Miss Jacobs, Miss Lamont, and Mr. Hall.

We boarded the train for Boston amidst a crowd of expectant sightseers. Arriving in that city we explored the prominent places of Boston and Cambridge. Our trip on shipboard from Fall River and New York was a new experience to most of us.

Our next stop was Philadelphia which we "did" in a most satisfactory manner.

We reached Washington, our destination, where some of us spent the next day, and others went to see our Naval Academy.

The forenoon of our fourth day was spent in touring Washington, seeing the Senate Office Building, the Pan-American Building, and the White House. The afternoon was spent at Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington.

Early Tuesday morning we started by bus for the Caverns. There we spent two hours, seeing the wonders of the great cave which left most of us open mouthed with awe.

On the next day we started on our return trip, stopping in New York. Thursday proved very interesting, for a part visited West Point, while the rest remained in New York City.

Friday brought about a depletion of our happy family. Some left for Boston, starting on their way home, leaving the rest to remain in New York an additional day. Friday morning was spent in shopping about New York. In the afternoon there came a bus trip, then the business and residential district. The aquarium in which we saw many strange fish and winter animals put an end to our trip.

From then on, our faces were turned homewards. We arrived in Portland to be welcomed with open arms. The trip was undisputably a great success. Now, we advise all seniors next year to make it a point to sign up for the Washington Trip.

Nature Club

THE Nature Club, organized in September, 1930, has been one of the most successful associations in D. H. S. this year. At the initial meeting the following officers were elected: president, Miss Frances Hayden; vice-president, Miss Barbara Boynton; secretary-treasurer, Miss Philena Chase. Miss Anne McKechnie has been faculty adviser.

Each Friday morning a meeting was held in the biology laboratory. At these meetings programs concerning our birds, trees, ferns, flowers, stars, and star legends were presented. A study was made of the hydroids and jelly-fish, and aquariums, tenariums, and bacteria afforded interesting discussions.

In addition to these regular meetings several field trips were held. The first was a picnic supper trip at Charlotte Cloudman's camp in Westbrook. At that time an extensive study of the native ferns was made.

A field trip to study the winter buds of trees was held in the Evergreen Cemetery woods. The winter bird trip was at Falmouth Foreside, and the spring birds were studied at Stroud-water.

Among the most fascinating of the extra trips were several star-gazing parties. At one Mr. William Emmons introduced the club to the planet Jupiter and its four moons via the telescope.

Besides these field trips the club enjoyed a talk by Mr. Emmons on geological curiosities, a talk by Mrs. William E. Perkins on our winter birds, a talk on mosses by Mrs. Frank Lowe, a talk on bird nests by Mr. A. H. Norton, and a talk on gardens by Mrs. William E. Wing.

To close the club year an all-day field trip was held at the sea-shore. A special study was made of the plants and animals which can be found only at low tide on the shore. The various types of rockweeds were identified. Later the club watched the sea-anemones, and teased them by touching their sensitive tentacles, which, when contracted, left the anemone very much like a baked apple. Hard, sharp-edged barnacles gave a chance to observe this life. Lastly, blue crabs were caught, examined, cooked, shelled, and eaten by enthusiastic members of the D. H. S. Nature Club of 1930-31.

Girl Reserves

President, FLORENCE FRENCH

Vice-President, MADELINE WILLISTON

Secretary, FLAVILLA EATON

Treasurer, IRENE BELLEFONTAINE

THE Deering High School Girl Reserves has just completed a most successful season. Miss Tyler, a member of the faculty is the Adviser.

One of the most enjoyable features of the year was the conference, which was held in Portland last November. Groups gathered from all parts of the state to attend the conference. It was planned that in 1932, the conference would be held in Auburn, Maine.

Many interesting outings have been enjoyed. The girls have practiced for a bowling tournament and have done interesting handwork.

The club has had many social events this year, such as the Christmas Party and the Mother and Daughter Banquet. They also entertained the High "Y" Boys at a banquet.

It is hoped that the group next year will have as much enjoyment as it has in the past.

Our Deering

'Twas long years ago that our Deering
Was weak and was little you know;
But having a purpose unveering,
She stronger continued to grow.
Now she is high and deserving,
Respected and honored by all:
May we be as faithful, unswerving,
And true to what duty may call.

CHORUS:

Deering, Deering,
All unto thee we owe.
Deering, revering,
Blessings we bestow.
Fonder, ponder,
Pledging thee anew!
Where e'er we wander, we love thee true.

Altho' in these halls may be sounding
The footsteps of others some day,
And many dear friends here surrounding,
May be in some land far away,
Memory always will cherish
The bright happy days that are past:
Devotion and love will not perish,
But cling while Life's journey shall last.

George T. Goldthwaite.

The Purple and White

When Deering felt the duty to own
A flag, not for its beauty alone,
She chose a color that her aim
And noble purpose bid her claim,
The purple of the kingly throne.
And zealous in endeavor to see
The Light of Truth where-ever it be,
The choice of white she quickly made
To place beside the Purple shade
And made a banner dear to me.

CHORUS:

Be loyal to the Purple!
Be loyal to the White!
Emblem of the Noble
And of Truth and Right.
Bear your colors proudly,
And raise them to the sky;
We conquer by the might of the Purple and White,
For the honor of Deering High.

On field and plain none braver can try
To make the foe-man waver and fly
For many heroes we have sent
Abroad upon this continent,
To battle for the Deering High.
In every competition of brain,
Our thorough erudition is plain,
Deering spirit ever more!
Deering colors to the fore,
And lead us in the van again.

George T. Goldthwaite.

Out To Win

O, hear our little song,
We're out to win! to win!
The echoes roll along,
We're out to win! to win!
We have no hesitation
In giving information
Of our determination
To win! We're out to win!
See them quiver and quake.
See them shiver and shake;
D-double E-R-I-N-G!
Deering! Deering! Rah!

CHORUS:

See the purple banners flying,
Deering hosts are here.
List the mighty shout replying
To the foe's weak cheer.
Proud we are, no thought of fearing,
With the ball in play:
For we know the men (or girls) from Deering
Are out, and out to win today.

This surely is our day:
We're out to win! to win!
We care not what THEY say;
We're out to win! to win!
No matter what's before us,
With every voice sonorous
Repeat the lusty chorus,
"To win! We're out to win!"
See them shiver and shake:
See them quiver and quake.
D-double E-R-I-N-G!
Deering! Deering! Rah!

George T. Goldthwaite.
